Councillor calls for young people to join fight against hospital bed cuts

SEATON town and district councillor Peter Burrows says young people should join the fight to save community hospital beds.

Last week he convinced fellow district councillors to back a motion "to register extreme concern" over the potential loss of 71 community hospital beds.

As a result, East Devon District Council will urge MPs Neil Parish and Sir Hugo Swire to further lobby the NEW Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) to rethink a proposal to close inpatient beds.

Councillor Burrows said: "I take the issue of the loss of community hospital beds very seriously and feel strongly about the impact it will have on the people of East Devon."

"In particular, I feel we need to raise awareness of this potentially devastating predicament among the younger generation, as they will be the ones looking after their parents if the beds are lost."

"This is why I want to encourage as much engagement as possible with young people."

He is keen for young people to attend the public meeting on Friday, November 4th at The Gateway (aka town hall), starting at 2pm.

The meeting has been called by Seaton doctors, town councillors and hospital League of Friends members concerned about the possible closure of beds at Seaton Hospital.

Councillor Burrows's motion also said: "This council urges the MPs to continue speaking on behalf of all residents in East Devon, so that an ill-thought out decision, which has come about only for financial reasons, is urgently re-considered by the NEW Devon CCG."

In a separate move, Seaton Hospital League of Friends has submitted a formal reply to the NEW Devon CCG's consultation exercise called Your Future Care. The reply runs to four pages and under the heading of 'Conclusion', League of Friends chairman Dr Mark Welland wrote: "Solutions that improve the flow through [main] hospitals are needed but, with this aim in mind, closing community hospital beds will be counterproductive – a thoroughly retrograde step for 21st century care, and which the league strongly opposes."

■ SUCCESSFUL MOTION: Councillor Peter Burrows

Currently there are a total of 143 beds spread across eight community hospitals in the area covered by NEW Devon CCG.

But health bosses announced drastic proposals that would see only 72 beds concentrated to three sites, with a shortlist of four options:

- Option A: Beds at Tiverton (32), Seaton (24) and Exmouth (16);
- Option B: Beds at Tiverton (32), Sidmouth (24) and Exmouth (16);
- Option C: Beds at Tiverton (32), Seaton (24) and Exeter (16);
- Option D: Beds at Tiverton (32), Sidmouth (24) and Exeter (16).

Angela Pedder, Lead Chief Executive for NEW

Devon CCG's Success Regime, said at the time: "We recognise the changes we are proposing will prompt difficult debate but we firmly believe the options in the consultation represent a real opportunity for us to improve care."

The consultation document is available online at www.newdevonccg.nhs.uk/your-future-care/102019

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

AXMINSTER Flood defence scheme put on hold

ROCKETING costs have put a temporary halt to a major flood defence scheme in Axminster, Devon County Council has announced.

The second phase of the already-delayed Axminster Millbrook Flood Defence Scheme was postponed only weeks into a what was expected to be a six-month period of work.

The work, envisaged to cost just over £500,000, is now expected to cost more than £800,000.

As a result, Devon County Council has had to go back to the Environment Agency to ask for more money through a grant aid process.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council with responsibility for Highway Management and Flooding, said: "After making such a good start with the preliminary work, I'm very disappointed to be having to put on the breaks."

"We're still aiming to have by far the bulk of the work completed by early Summer 2017."

CHARD Residents celebrate new-look play park

RESIDENTS of Furzehill, Chard, are celebrating after a collaboration with the district council saw their overgrown park transformed into a child-friendly play area for all to enjoy.

The park, in the heart of the Furzehill estate, has been through many changes over the last year with improvement works carried out by South Somerset District Council (SSDC).

Councillor Jo Roundell Greene, deputy leader of South Somerset District Council and Portfolio holder for Streetscene Services, added: "Our officers are happy to work with communities to make improvements that will enhance the area that you live in or visit."

"Clearing land of overgrown vegetation and litter can unlock the potential to transform an area such as the Furzehill play area and I am pleased to see such a great result that all residents can enjoy."

From the editor's chair Farewell – but I will return!

I FULLY expect this piece of news to generate the formation of the Axminster Silver Band (remember them?) and the staging of celebratory street parties for the kids across East Devon and South Somerset.

This will be my very last 'From The Editor's Chair' column. I can hear the cheering from here, especially at Knowle! The Press Office at the NHS in Exeter will be ecstatic.

I have been writing a column in Pulman's Weekly News and Pulman's View virtually every week since the late 1990s as well as penning a weekly comment piece for our Dorset titles.

But as I spend most of my week now managing a group of newspapers in London, it becomes ever more difficult to choose appropriate subject matters to engage with those of you have been loyal readers throughout that time. Unfortunately, I cover very few engagements these days and its the attendance at such events as a reporter which gets the journalistic juices flowing.

A colleague suggested I should organise a farewell party for all those this column has upset over the years. Unfortunately, the Devon County Showground wasn't available!

To those of you – especially those in authority – whom I have upset over the last 20 years, and those of you who feel they were unfairly treated, please accept my sincere apologies. There was never any malice intended.

This column has always tried to stand up for the man in the street, those who feel they do not have a voice when it comes to the issues that have a great affect on their life.

That very often meant taking on those in authority, the rule makers and the rule breakers. I make no apology for that.

But those of you who have been waiting anxiously for my retirement, I am sorry to disappoint you – again! Over the next few weeks we will be introducing a number of changes to the format of Pulman's Weekly News and Pulman's View titles. These changes we believe will provide a better coverage of local events and a more interesting read. We also decided that 'From the Editor's Chair' had run its course.

But I am not packing away my notebook and pencil for good and I will return with another column, although in a different format.

I would, however, like to say a heartfelt thank you to those readers who have stayed loyal to this column and for the many kind and touching responses I have received over the years. I will miss you.

PHILIP EVANS

CREWKERNE Apprenticeship scheme praised

A CREWKERNE businessman and local MP Marcus Fysh both hailed the apprenticeship concept at an awards ceremony, saying it provides tomorrow's leaders.

Mr Fysh and Peter Eckersall, managing director of AGC AeroComposites, made the positive comments when four apprentices at the company, formerly know as Tods, were rewarded for their efforts in completing an advanced apprenticeship in engineering manufacture.

The company, based in Crewkerne and specialising in advanced composite materials for aerospace applications, held a ceremony to congratulate Thomas Bryan, Patrick Cullen, Callum Harley and Oliver Moon.

The four-year course is delivered in conjunction with Yeovil College.

Mr Fysh presented the certificates to the apprentices and said: "A practical skill is a great, worthwhile thing to have and the more people that recognise the value of a skilled workforce, the better."

ILMINSTER Local mother marks anniversary of trust

AN inspirational Somerset mother has marked 10 successful years running a charity to help grieving parents, set up in her late daughter's name.

Carol Crane lost her daughter Rosie to leukaemia and, in her memory, launched The Rosie Crane Trust on October 31st 2006 with the support of her local community, family and friends.

Although based near Ilminster, the charity reaches out to bereaved parents of any age, nationwide with a 24-hour Listening Ear Helpline, manned by specially trained bereaved parents able to listen, empathise and offer referrals to other helpful organisations and professionals.

The anniversary was marked with a cheese and wine evening at Horton Village Hall on Saturday, October 29th and the event was attended by friends, family and supporters of the charity.

For further information on the charity, visit www.rosiecranetrust.org or follow the Facebook page www.facebook.com/TheRosieCraneTrust

HONITON Town shortlisted for dementia award

HONITON could soon be named the Dementia Friendly Rural Community of the Year after being nominated for a national award.

The nomination for Honiton in the Dementia Friendly Awards 2016 comes only a year after being named a 'Dementia Friendly Town' and is the culmination of hard work put in by the town's dementia action alliance, chaired by Heather Penwarden.

Honiton has been nominated alongside Watchet in Somerset and Greenmount in Lancashire and will find out on November 30th whether or not it has won at a ceremony in Westminster, hosted by Alzheimer's Society Ambassador Angela Rippon OBE.

The dementia action alliance has set up an active walking group, as well as a nostalgic cinema, which shows classic films at The Beehive. The group has also worked with people of all generations in the town, helping to raise awareness of what it is like to live with dementia.

Honiton Dementia Action Alliance (HDAA) has close links with the college and with the local scout groups, who regularly take on projects to create items that might make dementia sufferers lives better.

The Mayor of Honiton, Councillor Caroline Kolek, added: "This nomination ... just goes to show what a wonderful community we live in."

"This condition is devastating for sufferers and their families, we should do all we can to support them."

OTTERY ST MARY Town's all set for Tar Barrels

IT SEEMS to come round faster each year as the popularity of Tar Barrels grows, and once again Ottery St Mary readies itself for its bonkers tradition.

On Saturday (November 5th), thousands will descend on Ottery to witness one of the most historic and bizarre traditions England has to offer, as locals hoist flaming barrels coated in tar on their shoulders and run them through the streets while the crowds dive out of the way.

The exact origins of Tar Barrels are unknown but is thought to have started around the time of The Gunpowder Plot of 1605.

Tar Barrels organisers urge visitors and residents to make plans and have sent out warnings to make sure the evening is not ruined by the minority.

There will be five car parks available across the night, with locations and direction available on the Tar Barrels web site – www.tarbarrels.co.uk

All monies raised from car parking charges go towards the running of the event and to the charities and organisations that help on the night.

SEATON Councillor calls on young to join fight against bed cuts

SEATON town and district councillor Peter Burrows says young people should join the fight to save community hospital beds.

Last week he convinced fellow district councillors to back a motion "to register extreme concern" over the potential loss of 71 community hospital beds.

Councillor Burrows said: "I take the issue of the loss of community hospital beds very seriously and feel strongly about the impact it will have on the people of East Devon."

"In particular, I feel we need to raise awareness among the younger generation, as they will be the ones looking after their parents if the beds are lost."

'Spooktacular' fun at Pecorama

FAMILIES had a 'spooktacular' time at Pecorama last week with Halloween events and games taking centre stage.

There were scary rides on the Beer 'Frights' Light Railway, pumpkin carving workshops, and a horrible Halloween treasure hunt.

Special evening events saw visitors enjoy spooky illuminated train rides, play time in the indoor play area, ghostly tales from the White Witch of Peco and chocolate covered marshmallow and strawberry treats.

There was a daily show in the Station Gallery along with games and fun in the marquee and the Play Station indoor soft play area, where the under 12s burnt off their energy!

Lego contest for grown-ups

BUDDING adult 'engineers' will have a chance to show off their skills when the Friends of Seaton Library (FoSeL) stage a Lego building competition for the over 18s.

The competition will take place in the library on Saturday, November 5th from 10.30am until 12.30pm, marking the start of Devon Libraries' Active Life Active Mind campaign.

To enter the competition, contact Seaton Library to reserve a place (in person, by calling 01297 21832 or emailing seaton.library@librariesunlimited.org.uk).

It's 50p per person to enter and a small prize will be awarded to the person whose construction, in the opinion of FoSeL's committee members, best reflects Devon Libraries' theme, Active Life Active Mind.

FoSeL will be running a refreshment stall at the event where you can buy drinks and homemade cakes.

FoSeL is a group of volunteers supporting the library by fundraising for 'extras' and helping out at events like the recent Summer Reading Challenge.

Thanks to the efforts of FoSeL members and the generosity of the local community, Seaton Library now runs a Lego club for children of primary school age between 11.30am and 12.30pm every Saturday morning at the library.

The club is very popular but there is no need to book – just pop in and let your imagination take flight!

FoSeL always needs more members, and you can join by popping in to the library and paying £1 for a year's membership. You can also renew your membership this way – just speak to a member of staff.

There are no obligations once you've joined, but new committee members are desperately needed, as are extra helping hands.

Helping out just once a year makes a great deal of difference to FoSeL's success.

If you're interested in joining the committee please contact chairperson Jill Cavell by email (jill.cavell@gmail.com) or give your telephone contact details to a member of library staff.

Remembrance Sunday schedule announced

THE Act of Remembrance led by the Seaton Branch of the Royal British Legion will be observed at the War Memorial in St Gregory's Churchyard, prior to the morning service on Remembrance Sunday (November 13th).

Local organisations, youth groups, public bodies and the local community will join together for a few minutes of dignified solemnity and reflection on those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

The names of the fallen will be read, followed by the playing of the Last Post and a two-minute silence at 11am. The silence is broken by the Reveille and then wreaths are laid at the foot of the War Memorial.

At the same time, posies and poppies are laid by children on the war graves in the churchyard. The gathered ensemble will then proceed into St Gregory's Church.

Prior to that, on Friday, November 11th, the Seaton RBL branch, along with civic leaders, will observe the Act of Remembrance at 11am.

This will take place in Windsor

Gardens in front of the Field of Remembrance, that is created each year to hold personal tributes.

Derek Payne MBE, chairman of Seaton RBL, said: "Everyone from the community is invited to these few poignant moments of reflection."

Coffee morning fundraiser

SEATON Stroke Group is to hold a coffee morning on November 14th.

The event takes places from 10am to 12noon on Monday, November 14th at Number One Harepath Road.

The aim of the group is to provide peer support and information for stroke survivors and their carers.

Contact Angela or Brian Cooper on 01297 22239 or Roger or Tina Trapani on 01297 21788 for more information on the group and event.

Have your say on future of healthcare in East Devon

RESIDENTS wishing to take part in NHS NEW Devon CCG's 'Your Future Care' consultation will be able to meet with decision makers at a series of meetings in Sidmouth, Honiton and Seaton.

People have been outraged since it was announced that Honiton will lose their inpatient beds, along with either Seaton or Sidmouth, as part of a cost cutting exercise.

Meetings in Sidmouth will take place on Monday, November 7th at The Knowle. The first will take place from 1.30pm to 3.30pm, the second meeting will follow that evening from 5.30pm to 8pm.

Honiton residents will be able to meet members of the CCG on Thursday, November 10th from 10am to 12.30pm and at a second meeting later in the month, on Tuesday, November 29th from 10am to 2.30pm.

Both meetings will be held at The Beehive in Dowell Street.

Seaton residents' chance to meet with the CCG will take place on Thursday, November 24th at the Town Hall (aka The Gateway) on Fore Street. The first meeting will be from 2pm till 4.30pm and, following that, from 5.30pm to 8pm.

The CCG are urging members of the public to register to guarantee their place at a meeting by calling 01392 356 084 or emailing d-ccg.YourFutureCare@nhs.net

The CCG say where there is demand, further meetings will be organised.

■ EAST Devon District Council has urged local MPs Sir Hugo Swire and Neil Parish to continue to speak out against the hospital bed closures.

The motion to register extreme concern over the potential loss of 71 community beds in East Devon was voted through by councillors last week.

■ NEIL Parish has also clarified his comments made at the recent Westminster debate.

Mr Parish wrongly accused NEW Devon CCG Lead Chief Executive for the Success Regime, Angela Pedder, of making the decision to close hospital beds in Axminster without consultation.

Mr Parish said: "I am happy to confirm that I was speaking about the CCG in general when making my remarks last week, rather than about Angela Pedder."

"Moreover, when Axminster Hospital lost its beds, although there was a consultation, it was nowhere near extensive enough.

"The CCG should not use consultations as a way to rubber-stamp pre-agreed ideas."

Mr Parish also said at the debate: "As to Axminster, we still do not have a proper facility and we do not know how it will be engaged."

"Not only are the CCGs taking beds away from community hospitals; they are not putting anything in their place."

He continued: "We have an ageing population; the age profile of Axminster is probably what the whole country's will be in 2035. Our population is healthy but growing older."

"We want to help people in their own homes. I am pleased for that to happen, and I think it is right, but we also need community hospitals."

"Honiton has excellent communications so it is easy to bring people in and out of the hospital, and it is a quick journey from the Royal Devon and Exeter to Honiton Hospital if people need to be brought back to relieve the pressure on beds."

"I cannot see how it is possible to go forward with a consultation when a hospital is completely taken out."

Firefighters from across East Devon called to battle Exeter hotel blaze

FIREFIGHTERS from stations across East Devon were despatched to the major hotel fire in Exeter last Friday. The fire ripped through and destroyed Royal Clarence Hotel, thought to be England's oldest, in Cathedral Green.

The alarm was raised at about 5.10am and it quickly became clear it was a major incident.

Crews from stations in Exeter, Honiton, Ottery, Sidmouth, Topsham, Crediton, Exmouth, Cul-lompton, Dawlish, Tiverton, Middlemoor, Teignmouth, Budleigh Salterton, Moreton Hampstead and Newton Abbot made up the initial response.

But it is understood that crews from several other stations, including Axminster, were despatched as the incident continued.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

BONFIRE and FIREWORKS on 6th November is just part of a range of activities on offer at CLOAKHAM LAWN SPORTS CENTRE

THE Fund-raising Committee of Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre is delighted to present its Annual Bonfire and Fireworks event at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre on Sunday 6th November.

As in previous years, this promises to be a truly spectacular evening and is yet again supported and sponsored by Bovis Homes.

Herbert's Funfair, fresh from their successful fair at Websters during Carnival Week, will be providing Children's and Adult's rides, and the Sports Centre will be offering food, hot drinks and a licensed bar.

This year there will be a Children's Halloween Costume Competition and we will be looking for a large number of entries.

As this is a family event, children under 5 are welcomed free of charge, other children are charged £2 and adults are charged at £4. Car parking is free.

Gates are open at 4.30 pm, with the bonfire at 5.30 pm and the fireworks at 6.00 pm

This event is one of a number of events run by the Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre Fund-raising Committee, including regular Bingo sessions.

Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre continues to offer a wide range of opportunities for all ages.

Both Millwey Rise Football Club first XI and the Reserves are producing excellent results in the Devon and Exeter League. The club has a thriving youth section with well over 100 players playing at a wide range of age-groups.

Similarly, Axminster Town Cricket Club has a large number of talented young players pushing hard for places in the senior sides. The club's adult teams had a disappointing season last year, but next season the teams will be playing in lower divisions and will be looking for new players. The club reintroduced its women and girls section last season and had a brilliant season; winning their league and gaining promotion to the top division.

With autumn now upon us, the bowls clubs move indoors and Axminster Indoor Bowls Club has had an excellent start to its season. The club always welcomes new players and qualified coaches are there to help!

However, if you prefer your sport outside, the club has recently opened its Boules Court and will welcome all new and existing players.

Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre also provides a wide range of indoor social activities, including darts, skittles, regular music on Saturday evenings, and sport on TV for watching Premier League and Cup football matches in excellent surroundings.

There's never a dull moment at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre. Please call on us – you will receive a warm greeting from popular bar manager, Julie North, who will introduce you to the excellent choice of activities available at the centre.

Solicitors wear it pink for breast cancer awareness

STAFF at Scott Rowe Solicitors donned their best pink clothes and held a coffee morning to mark Breast Cancer Awareness Month, in aid of Cancer Research UK. Locals were encouraged to pop into the solicitors and pick up a slice of cake and donate money to the worthy cause. Businesses across East Devon held similar event to raise vital funds for the charity.

Wool Room wins rural business award

THE Wool Room, which has a branch in Axminster, clinched the Best Rural Clothing or Accessories Business Award at the annual Rural Business Awards.

Launched in 2008, The Wool Room's headquarters are based in Rutland with six stores nationwide.

The company specialises in wool bedding, wool beds, chemical-free mattresses and also a range of wool accessories.

Its Axminster shop is located within Axminster Carpets Factory Shop as a direct result of H Dawson Wool acquiring Axminster Carpets in February this year.

This is because H Dawson Wool chairman Jo

Dawson founded The Wool Room in 2008, and quickly saw the potential following the takeover.

The Wool Room MD Chris Tattersall said: "It's fantastic that our British made wool accessories have been honoured with the award from the Rural Business Awards.

"It's amazing how versatile wool is – from bedding, to clothing and even wool mattresses – the natural fabric has many benefits.

"Having wool accessories around the home help to clean the air and wearing wool clothing helps to reduce exposure to allergens through its natural moisture management.

"By buying wool products, consumers also help to support the British wool industry."

VIEW FROM THE MAYOR'S CHAIR

A new monthly column by the Mayor of Axminster, Councillor Paul Hayward

FOR my second column, I thought that I would write about the three Ps: Puppies, Poppies and Paper.

On the subject of puppies, the town council met in October and we were delighted to welcome a very large contingent of dog owners who all came along to express their democratic views on the future layout, and use, of the Jubilee field, between Boxfield Road and Dukes Way.

This piece of land is soon to be transferred to the council and a wonderful children's play park has already been built. However, because of the fact that dog mess and children don't go well together, some councillors felt that dogs should be excluded from the new recreation area entirely; others, that they should be allowed free rein (no pun intended).

Eventually, after another meeting, a happy compromise was reached, allowing both parents and carers with children safe and easy access to an open, green and clean area to play in, but also giving dog owners a place to exercise their pets off the lead.

I suppose the key word here is "responsibility". That is to say, as long as responsible dog owners collect Rover's deposits, then everyone can enjoy the same space without the need for too many fences, barriers and gates. Proof also, that compromise is just a matter of negotiation, mutual understanding, plus ample supplies of coffee and cake.

■ ONE hundred years ago this month, tens of thousands of British soldiers were engaged in a massive offensive which has come to represent all that is simultaneously heroic, senseless and tragic about warfare.

Just 250 miles away (as the crow flies) is the River Somme in France, scene of a battle that raged between July 1st and November 18th 1916.

Enough words have been written about those dreadful 20 weeks to make anything I could add entirely superfluous but, what I can say, is that – as happens every year – there will be a commemorative service of remembrance on Sunday, November 13th at the Minster Church and I would encourage all those who care about democracy, who care about their country and who care about their town to attend, together with representatives from all spheres of the community, to pay your respects to those who gave their all to safeguard the rights we enjoy today, and to share a moment of silence to reflect on why we all must strive to ensure that such an event never happens again in our lifetimes.

■ FINALLY, on the subject of paper, I was delighted to see a news report about a young five-year old girl, Florence Parsons, who has become an internet sensation thanks to her campaign to rid the streets of Yeovil of litter. Every day, Florence picks up as much litter as she can find and her published quote: "... Just do a street clean and thank you for having no excuses, the end" reminded me that we can all do something, every day, to make where we live a bit more special, and a little more tidy.

If every resident of Axminster picked up just one piece of litter – be that a crisp packet, a sweet wrapper, an empty can or bottle – that would be more than 5,000 pieces of litter collected each day, 35,000 items per week. The town council, working with East Devon District Council, is keen to eradicate litter from our streets, and in the words of young Florence... there is no excuse for litter. The end!

P.S. Wrap up warm, folks, winter's coming.

Charity needs your votes

AXMINSTER-based charity The Project, which supports youths with mental health issues, is hoping for public support and votes.

Founder Debbie Humberstone said: "We have put The Project forward to receive funding from Aviva Community Fund, and voting is now open.

"Could you possibly please take a minute to vote for The Project, so that we are in with a chance of receiving these vital funds, which would allow us to continue supporting local young people with mental health issues.

"Voting is open until November 18th, and we need enough votes to get through to the final judging stage.

"If successful, this money could make all the difference to the support that we provide to young people, parents and carers in the South West."

You can vote online at <https://community-fund.aviva.co.uk/voting/project/view/16-2687>

Monthly TIC draw winners

HILARY Kirkcaldie, Trish Ramsay and Sandra Murray were the winners in Axminster Tourist Information Centre's October draw, claiming £7, £5 and £4 respectively.

The draw was made by two visitors attending an event at Axminster Arts Café. There were 32 in the draw, and Jill Ruddick of Axminster TIC said: "We would welcome more players. Pick up and application form from the TIC."

Doctor takes on gruelling double challenge

SEATON GP Dr Joe Kent helped raise in excess of £7,000 for worthy causes by climbing Mount Kilimanjaro and running a Marathon in October.

He is now back at Seaton and Colyton Medical Practice with plenty of stories to tell his patients after his remarkable double achievement.

Dr Kent climbed the 19,000ft plus African mountain as part of a team, including family members Nick Seaver and David Kelly.

He said: "We all made it to the summit of Kilimanjaro (5,895 metres) in Tanzania.

"Our support team was simply amazing and focused on our safety at all times.

"Although no technical climbing is required – this is a tough, cold and hard six days at altitude.

"On our final day we had to trek for 18 hours, starting at 11.30pm.

"Tanzania is a beautiful country with interesting, friendly and hospitable people to match – I would love and hope to return."

Having returned to the UK, Dr Kent had the small matter of Abingdon Marathon on October 23rd to concentrate on.

He summed it up by saying: "What was I thinking? It was excruciatingly painful after 19 miles. My sense of humour was failing by 22 miles. My issue was obviously a lack of training miles.

"Somehow, I managed to complete in four hours and four minutes.

"None of this could have been possible without the brilliant support from my fantastic and beautiful wife Katie.

"In combination, our team have managed to raise more than £7,000 for our charities – Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF – Doctors without Borders) and Eating with Dignity." Donations can still be made online at <http://bit.ly/2eUIMzN> for MSF and <http://bit.ly/2dsD8JD> for Eating With Dignity.

Walkers raise funds for RNLI

WALKERS were greeted by sunny weather when they turned out for the annual Seaton, Beer and District RNLI branch walk.

The total raised is not yet clear as donations are still coming in, but the £250 mark was quickly reached.

Branch secretary Wendy Cummins said: "We walked eight miles, from Sutton Thorn, near Widworthy, following lanes, tracks and alongside the river to Colyton and Colyford, and then to Seaton."

The walk took place on Sunday, October 16th, and Wendy completed a second walk the next day with her son Alastair, following a slightly different route.

She said: "£250 has been raised, with further sponsor money to be added – and donations are still welcome."

Book launch: Stroke group coffee morning

SEATON resident Carol Manley will hold a book launch event in The Gateway, telling the story of how a fellow patient saved her life.

Carol said: "Two Rooms One Lifetime is a personal account of my experience on a psychiatric ward, my road to recovery without medication and a simple act of kindness by a fellow patient that saved my life.

"I am holding a talk and book launch on Thursday, November at 7pm.

"It's free entry with tea and coffee."

SEATON Stroke Group is to hold a coffee morning between 10am and 12noon on Monday, November 14th at No 1 Harepath Road.

The aim of the group is to provide peer support and information for stroke survivors and their carers.

Local student to help light up Kenya with solar lanterns

EAST Devon student Harry Handyside will be in Africa this week aiming to bring some light and comfort to villagers in rural Kenya.

The 18-year-old from Higher Wiscombe, near Beer, will spend three weeks with the Light Up East Africa Foundation, a charity that is aiming to improve the lives of poor Kenyans by giving them eco-friendly, portable solar lanterns.

Harry will work with his godfather Elesh Gheewala, a childhood friend of his father Alis-tair who set up the foundation four years ago and has now gained recognition from the United Nations, which has cut the cost of buying the lamps in half from $26 to $13.

"There are three really good reasons why these lamps are beneficial to the villagers," said Harry.

"Firstly, there is the health benefit because it will help them reduce their dependence on kerosene. In poorly ventilated huts, where there are no windows, kerosene pollution is as bad as smoking 40 cigarettes a day.

"Secondly, each lamp comes with a phone charger. In Kenya the mobile phone is used as an informal banking system and has the same functions as our debit card.

"So if a villager's phone runs dead he has to take off half-a -day to walk to the nearest big town to get their phone charged - which costs them a day's wages as a fee - meaning they lose a day-and-a-half's money. With the lamp they can charge their phones in their home.

"Finally, and most importantly, children can use the lamp to do their homework and extra studies without it costing their parents extra by using more kerosene.

"It has already been found where these lamps

■ LIGHTING UP: Harry Handyside with the United Nations' lamp and photo charger attachments are used that education standards among children have risen and that is a tremendous benefit."

Through a series of fundraising ventures Harry, who is on a gap year before going to University of Exeter, has collected £2,000 which will buy 200 lamps.

"All the money will go towards buying the lamps so there is no admin costs involved so I would like to thank everyone who has supported me," added Harry.

Top blooms expected at autumn show

THE Beer Autumn Show takes place in the Mariners' Hall on Saturday, November 5th.

Beer's top gardeners - and other local growers - will be eagerly looking to make their mark in the charm Chrysanthemums competition which is the centre piece of this popular annual event.

"They will be at their best now and should look beautiful," said Ursula Makepeace, who is the president of Beer Horticultural Society.

Local growers can also show off their produce with classes for fruit and vegetables. But the show is more than just about flowers, fruit and veg.

Bakers get the chance to impress with classes for cakes, bread and mince pies, not to mention jams and chutneys, there are various categories for budding amateur photographers, home craft enthusiasts can try their hand at knitting, crochet or needlework while beach art should attract the more creative spirits.

The show's organisers are always keen to attract entries from children so there are separate classes for them in photography, poetry and best decorated scarecrow.

Entries should be dropped off at the Mariners' Hall between 9am and 10.45am on the day of the competition and prizes will be awarded at 3.30pm after the judges make their decisions.

For full details of all the classes see leaflets which are available at Beer Village Stores or the Post Office.

Honiton gets walking on Jolly Good Jaunt

■ THE Mayor of Honiton, Councillor Caroline Kolek, and her husband Stephen were pleased to support the good cause this year

■ DOG walkers love the seven-plus mile course

HOSPISCARE'S Jolly Good Jaunt once again was a huge success as walkers from across the county dressed in tweed and trekked across the East Devon countryside.

The Jolly Good Jaunt was set up as a fundraising initiative for Hospiscare and the King's House Hospice in Honiton, and each year hundreds of supporters don their walking boots and help to raise vital funds.

More than 400 people walked the seven-and-a-half-mile course, starting at The Deer Park Hotel, near Honiton, including the Mayor of Honiton, Councillor Caroline Kolek, and her husband Stephen.

Councillor Kolek said: "Myself and Stephen were only too pleased to support our local hospice by taking part in the lovely Jolly Good Jaunt. What a great way to spend time with family and friends on an autumnal Sunday morning.

"The route was delightful; across meadows and fields, through nearby picturesque villages, along the River Otter and through copses, down old farm tracks and bridleways. Thank you to all the marshals and volunteers who made it possible.

"A great way to enjoy our environment knowing that you are making a difference to those within our community in need of Hospiscare's valuable services. We look forward to taking part next year."

Event fundraiser Sharon Ewart said: "It was fantastic to see so many people at The Deer Park Hotel, jaunting to support the local facilities and care Hospiscare provides for hundreds of patients and their families in East Devon.

"The money raised from the Jolly Good Jaunt will make a huge difference, so from myself and all of the fundraising team at Hospiscare, thank you very much."

Organisers sent out thanks to several businesses in the local community who contributed to the day, including Tesco Honiton, Denhay, Hog Roast South West, Honiton and District Agricultural Association and the Deer Park Hotel.

History exhibition highlighted parish life

SHUTE Church recently hosted a history exhibition which saw locals and visitors from across the region take a look at fascinating reminders of all aspects of parish life in the past.

Displays ranged from village institutions including Express Dairy at Seaton Junction, the Whitford WI, and the girls' school at Shute House, to those which continue to thrive – the Primary School, Umborne Hall and Whitford Produce Association.

There was a collection of maps and documents about the former Shute Estate and a display by the bell ringers. Also reminders of how local farms have changed in recent years.

Organisers said: "After weeks of wondering whether there would be enough material, we were overwhelmed by the generosity of the community in sorting, mounting and loaning their personal treasures. There are far too many people to thank individually but grateful thanks go to everyone who contributed, helped or attended. Everyone involved was genuinely moved by the wealth of material on show and the number of people who came to enjoy seeing it. Thanks also go to the Legacy to Landscape group and Colyton Heritage Society for their support, to Sam and Bijan Omrani for leading walks to the 'new' Shute

House and letting us see their home, and to the National Trust, the Primary School and Mr and Mrs Bird for allowing us to park on their land."

School celebrates orchard

MUSBURY: Pupils at Musbury Primary School drank to the success of their own mini orchard with some freshly pressed apple juice.

Planted just 18 months ago the fledgling trees are growing almost as fast as the school, which only a few years ago faced closure after numbers fell into single figures.

Now the village school boasts 29 children and all were present with staff and friends to help press the apples and sing a rousing rendition of their own apple wassail rhyme.

"We have taught the children about the wassailing tradition and helped them write their own song," said lead teacher Emma Johns.

"It is important for the village school to be part of the community and events like this and the recent Harvest Supper, when we all went to the church for the service, help to achieve that."

Fete raises funds for tots

HAWKCHURCH Baby & Toddler Group received a cheque for £200 from the organisers of the village fete. The money was raised during this year's Hawkchurch Fete, and means the group will have enough funds to buy some toys and craft supplies for all those Christmas trimmings the children will be making.

Top photographer to speak at hotel

HAWKCHURCH: The Fairwater Head Hotel are looking forward to their next lunch club event on Friday, November 11th, when Lyme Regis born-and-bred Richard Austin will be entertaining their guests.

Richard has been a professional newspaper photographer for more than a quarter of a century, during which time his unique style of photographs have been published in countries throughout the world. The winner of numerous national and regional press awards, his photographs of animals resulted in his own six-part TV series called Richard Austin's Animal Magic.

If you would like to attend the lunch and talk you can contact the hotel on 01297 678349 or by email: info@fairwaterheadhotel.co.uk

Pool supporters go Greek

KILMINGTON: A Greek-flavoured evening at Kilmington Village Hall raised almost £1,600 for local charity, The Flamingo Pool.

Locals, Flamingo Pool supporters and volunteers enjoyed Greek styled surroundings, traditional Greek food, music and belly dancing while raising money for the Flamingo Pool.

After initial reticence, the dance floor soon filled up with those wishing to try out their belly dancing skills and the hip-worn coin belts under the guidance of Gina Bellygees. By the end of the evening, there was dancing around the tables to Zorba the Greek.

Organiser Dana Haydon-Sycamore said "It was a huge team effort that resulted in a great evening."

The Flamingo Pool's fundraising efforts are to help with the ever-increasing costs of running the pool and for a project to assist elderly, disabled and vulnerable members of the community. The Flamingo Pool welcomes supporters, donations and sponsorship.

New Director joins Scott Rowe

AGRICULTURAL law specialist Carinna Parsons has been appointed as a Director at Scott Rowe, Solicitors.

Commenting on this appointment, Kevin Bull and Richard Lewis, Directors of Scott Rowe, said: "We are delighted to welcome Carinna to the firm. The predominantly agricultural client base which Carinna brings with her to the firm fits very well with the firm's strengths."

Carinna said: "I am very pleased to be joining Scott Rowe and to have the opportunity of developing agricultural law as an important component of services which the firm is able to offer clients."

Carinna has over 16 years experience in Agricultural and Commercial Law and in 2011 she became one of few to be awarded the sought after Fellowship of the Agricultural Law Association which puts its candidates through rigorous training and exams in all areas of rural law.

Carinna grew up on a farm so understands the issues and challenges our rural clients face and enables her to deliver high quality practical advice with a common sense approach.

Please contact Carinna on 01460 63336 or email on carinna.parsons@scottrowe.co.uk if you wish to discuss any issue relating to property matters.

Readers rail against hospital

■ PRIOR to the parliamentary debate (reported on your Honiton front page October 25th) I met briefly with Sir Hugo Swire and the presiding Health Minister Phillip Dunne and was able to tell them I was there because the people of Honiton feel totally disenfranchised by the way the decision to close all 18 of our medical beds in Honiton has already been taken by New Devon CCG prior to the public consultation. Following the debate I had a long meeting with Neil Parish to present our concerns in more detail.

I was heartened to see our Devon MPs out in force for the debate. All spoke with great feeling about specific changes in their own constituencies being imposed by The Success Regime.

Our MP Neil Parish gave the most passionate speech of the afternoon praising the staff, volunteers and community of Honiton for providing such first class care over many generations in what is known locally as 'The Honiton Hilton'. He asked, 'how can this be called a consultation when Honiton and Okehampton do not even appear on the plan. Neil went on to plea for all his fellow MPs in Devon to unite in their efforts to force further debate in looking for alternative options to address the burden of financial deficit in Devon's Health care before any more beds are closed.

In summing up the debate Phillip Dunne said that even though Honiton is not in one of the options to retain its medical beds does not mean the people of Honiton cannot have their say. He urged individuals and groups in the community to engage fully with the consultation process through reading the Your Future Care consultation document, attending the public meetings and returning the CCG's feed back forms found within the document.

We must engage with this consultation process and let the CCG know what we think about their proposals. If we are silent it will be seen as acceptance and from what people are saying to me I know we are certainly not accepting of being erased completely out of this document that proposes to radically change the way health care is delivered in our community.

COPY of open letter to Neil Parish MP

■ LIKE most people in Seaton and the Axe Valley I am alarmed at the two options in the NEW Devon NHS Clinical Commissioning Group's consultation which would remove all beds from Seaton Hospital. Therefore I am glad that you will be speaking at the public meeting in Seaton Town Hall on Friday, November 4th to discuss these proposals.

I was surprised, however, that in the parliamentary debate on the NHS in Devon (October 18th) you focused entirely on Honiton Hospital and did not even mention Seaton. Certainly, the threat to Honiton is greater: it would lose all its beds under all four options consulted on, whereas under two options, including the one the CCG prefers, Seaton would keep its beds.

However there is a serious threat to Seaton. Your colleague Hugo Swire, MP for East Devon, says that if it is necessary to choose between the four options the CCG has put on the table, "option B, which sees the beds retained in Tiverton, and also in Sidmouth and Exmouth, is the option worthy of support". This would mean Seaton losing its beds.

Against this false choice between Seaton and Sidmouth, you were absolutely right to say: "I really feel that all our MPs across the whole of Devon need to unite, because over the last two years the number of beds in our community hospitals has been halved. I rather fear that we will be standing here in two years' time saying that they have been halved again. Rather than fighting between each other over which hospitals are kept open and which are closed, let us fight all the closures across Devon. Otherwise we are just being picked off one by one, Minister, and this is not the way to run a health service in Devon."

I put it to you that the only way we will not be forced to choose is if the Government finds more money for the NHS. The NEW Devon CCG's deficit stands at £122 million and is careering towards £384 million by 2020. To offset this, the CCG's 'Success Regime' – a strikingly Orwellian name – is desperately looking to cut costs, but all the 'efficiency savings' in the world will not deal with the problem.

Nursing costs for 16 beds in a community hospital are £914,000 per year, 24 beds may cost £1.32 million. Clearly even closing all community beds would still leave the CCG looking for huge savings elsewhere. A year ago I developed a hernia and was told the CCG policy was that I should try to live with it. The advice was rescinded and I had my operation, but I fear many people with 'routine' conditions will soon receive similar advice if the Government does not act.

NHS funding is a problem across Devon and the whole of England. The RD&E Trust and the Torbay and South Devon CCG are also in deficit. Nationally NHS bodies have combined deficits of £2.45 billion and rising. The Head of the NHS in England, Simon Stevens, told Parliament this week that the NHS has not been given the minimum funding it needs to meet its commitments in 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20.

Apparently the Prime Minister has told Mr Stevens the NHS must live with the allocated money and follow the example of the Home Office in making savings. Mr Stevens replied that 'while crime had fallen in recent years, demand for NHS care had risen, was still growing and would continue upward. For example, demand for cancer care had risen 55 per cent over the past five years.' The Royal College of Physicians says, 'demand increases by 4 per cent every year but, in real terms, NHS funding will increase by only 0.2 per cent per year to 2020.' The independent Kings Fund agrees: 'The principal cause of the deficit is the fact that funding has not kept pace with demand.'

Will you now recognise that we need a serious change in Government policy if every year we are not going to face further bed closures and other cuts? The majority of people in East Devon voted to leave the European Union, and many believed the claim (which Boris Johnson backed) that the NHS could gain an extra £350 million a week. It is now clear that leaving the EU will not produce this sort of money – but these Leave voters were absolutely right to think that the NHS needs a lot more.

When the new Chancellor announced he was dropping the target of ending the national deficit by 2020, many hoped there would be extra funding for the NHS in his Autumn Statement. The Prime Minister has now ruled this out. Yet there are many ways that money could be found: halt HS2, rule out a third runway for Heathrow, outlaw offshore trusts, make global corporations pay the right tax in the UK.

If, as you say, "all our MPs across the whole of Devon need to unite", what are they going to unite for? Not, surely, just to criticise the Success Regime's consultation document. The problem is bigger than the CCG. The only answer that makes sense is more Government funding.

A year ago, many of us were impressed when you defied the Government over tax credit cuts. The NHS crisis is an even bigger issue, which affects us all. We are relying on you, as our MP, to make clear publicly that the funding situation is not acceptable. Will you now take the lead in demanding that the Chancellor amends his spending plans to provide the NHS with adequate funds, and directs a large chunk to Devon?

MARTIN SHAW,
Seaton

■ YOU quote Mr Neil Parish MP saying: "rather than fighting... which hospitals are kept open and which are closed, let us fight all the closures across Devon." Such 'fighting talk' sounds well but does it achieve anything? I, for one, would be more impressed if I was able to read that our political representatives had met with those charged to make extremely difficult decisions to learn from them how they have come to develop the options they are putting out to consultation – and perhaps to influence these options. Ganging up against the Clinical Commissioning Group is like adversaries in a playground. If people don't take time to listen and to understand how are we going to get the best possible outcomes? How are we going to build a society in which we respect that most of those who are responsible for public services are working their socks off and trying to do their very best for us all. They don't always get it right, but do any of us?

closures and bed losses across Devon

■ I WRITE on behalf of the Seaton & Colyton Medical Practice PPG (Patient Participation Group). At a recent meeting we were made aware of the current CCG proposals whereby community hospital beds would be axed. This proposal, it seems, does not make any allowance for exactly how a substitute for hospital care will be put in place. We have already seen closure of beds in Axminster. We all foolishly thought that had given longevity to the safety of other community hospital beds. We were misled.

Our concern lies very much in favour of retaining all Seaton Hospital's services, but not to be pitched community against community, eg Seaton v. Sidmouth/Seaton v. Honiton etc. It is our premise that ALL beds should be retained. There are only empty hospital beds because

■ WE hear of 'bed-blocking' by elderly patients in major hospitals, yet local hospitals, where they can be cared for near to home, are being closed.

GP surgeries are full to overflowing, yet local pharmacies are due for closure, despite undertaking procedures like 'flu jabs' etc. We hear of long waits in major A&E units, yet local Minor Injury Units are being closed. Who is responsible for this madness?

A consultative document called Your-Future Care has been published by our new Health Commissioning group, that is meant to cover these points... but has there been any 'consultation'?

It seems that the NEW (North, East, Western Devon) group has made up its mind. Consultation, with whom and by funding has been withdrawn for staffing the wards. There are only "blocked" beds because of a lack of funding for care in the community. Our doctors are already fully stretched and the CCG's proposals will burden them even further – which in turn detracts from the care they can give you, their patient, on a daily basis. We are a huge county geographically with limited transport infrastructure therefore it is essential that we do not lose any of our precious facilities.

There is to be a public meeting on Friday, November 4th, at 2pm in Seaton Town Hall. Please try to attend to have your voice heard and to show your support for your local community hospital.

■ RE your front page story 'MP slams hospital bed cuts' (October 25th). Would that be the same MP who voted for the flawed NHS and Social Care Bill 2012 and the rapid expansion of the internal market? Would that be the MP who voted for the establishment of Clinical Commissioning Groups who now accuses NEW Devon CCG of failing to consult and making 'we know best' decisions?

At the 2010 general election we were not asked to vote on the complete re-organisation of the NHS. We were promised that it would not happen. The subsequent NHS and Social Care Act is widely regarded as the root cause of the present crisis of our deeply-fractured NHS system with problems of over administration, futile management consultants, failed privatisations and major cash crisis leading to the closure of hospitals and the rundown of beds and local facilities. This is happening all over the country because of the actions of politicians.

We have a Health Secretary who has forfeited the trust of doctors and nurses, who has depressed NHS pay rates and now imposes contracts. We have nurses who must now obtain bursaries for their training and who are leaving the NHS. Our hospitals are having to spend millions of pounds on private agency nurses. We are short of 3,500 midwives, hospitals are going bankrupt and we have a CCG which is trying to avert the same fate by the disastrous expedient of closing beds whatever the cost to patients and to other parts of the NHS including RD&E. The promises on community care are not believed because, as Somerset shows, community care itself is in crisis because it is not properly funded by the government. When an MP blames an NHS bureaucrat for bed cuts you can be sure there is something more amiss. We, the patients, need answers and should all ask, who is truly responsible for our local and national NHS crisis?

Please support our Poppy Day

■ THE Royal British Legion Poppy Day is on November 13th.

We all know how much and how many depend on The Royal British Legion and a successful Poppy Day Appeal. The need for help is still as great as ever and we need to show our support for all members of the Armed Forces, retired members and their families.

Devon has always given generously. I am confident this year we will all "wear our Poppy with pride" – and with thankfulness.

Halloween insensitivity

■ I FIND it utterly appalling, insensitive and offensive that the Hospiscare charity shop in Seaton has been allowed to dress its window with a Halloween themed display of two life-size ghostly figures, one dressed in a white shroud streaked with fake blood and a grey stone plaque at its feet with the word 'graveyard' written on it. I accept that Halloween is now widely celebrated in the UK and that many shops at this time of the year are full of Halloween displays but surely a Hospiscare Shop should not be a part of this macabre tradition? The whole point of Hospiscare shops is to raise funds towards the costs of the wonderful work carried out by hospices all over the country caring for people with terminal illness.

Those responsible should be ashamed of themselves and should reflect upon the upset caused to so many people, especially those who may have terminally ill friends or relatives.

Magistrate gives insight into work

HONITON U3A: No one wants to find themselves sitting before a magistrate but this was not the case at the October meeting in the Beehive.

The guest speaker was serving magistrate Peter Scott, who explained that, unlike years ago, it is not now a requirement for a magistrate to be a landowner. Indeed anyone between the ages of 18 – 70 of good character, with a wide range of interests and a good understanding of the community can apply.

Successful application is followed by interviews and 12-months' training in all aspects of the criminal justice system.

The audience learned that 97 per cent of all criminal cases which start in the Magistrate's Court are dealt with there and only three per cent go on to the Crown Court. Cases range from shoplifting to drug possession, traffic offences to environmental issues and more. Mr Scott gave an insight into considerations when deciding on a sentence – seriousness, damage or injury, victim vulnerability, group action, racial aggravation and more, for which there are structured guidelines. From Mr Scott's talk it was obvious to the audience that being a magistrate can be very difficult but extremely worthwhile and rewarding.

Chairman Janet Driscoll thanked Mr Scott for a very interesting and in-depth explanation of the criminal justice system and the magistrate's role within it.

Vibrant watercolour demonstration

HONITON ART SOCIETY: Dorset-based artist Marilyn Allis painted two vibrant watercolours at the society's October meeting.

Using large brushes she paints loosely with no unnecessary detail, creating paintings full of movement and colour. For her demonstration she had previously sketched two scenes on heavy-weight watercolour paper.

The first, a horse-racing scene, she continued by rubbing in wax highlights to resist the paint. Marilyn was careful not to let her wash run over the outline of the jockeys which would muddy later applications of colour. To finish, shadows painted under the horses anchored them to the ground.

Marilyn's second painting was a group of Medieval musicians in colourful attire. She kept the background pale to add impact, always being careful not to over-work the painting and lose spontaneity.

Chairman Barrie Raby thanked Marilyn for her demonstration which would help members achieve more vibrant and dynamic watercolour paintings.

The next meeting is on November 14th, from 2-4pm at Awliscombe Village Hall, when Colin Brown will demonstrate a street scene in mixed media. Visitors welcome, entrance £4.

Talk on church screens

DEVONSHIRE ASSOCIATION, AXE VALLEY BRANCH:

The first meeting of the Autumn, held in Colyton, enjoyed a beautifully illustrated talk by Martin Horrell about Mediaeval Rood Screens in Devon Churches, and the history that surrounds them. Originally built to separate the clergy and the sacrament in the chancel from the people, over a hundred still survive in the county's churches. Some are in better condition than others; the screens were made of stone or wood, often supporting 'The Rood' (a statue of the Crucifixion) and a small Rood Loft. Mr Horrell explained that many screens have paintings or carvings of saints, each identified by symbols of their martyrdom or achievements in life.

The Association meets on the third Wednesday of the month in the Peace Memorial Pavilion in Colyton.

Ron Howell will speak on 'Three thousand years of History from the Sea' at the November Meeting at 2.30pm – all are welcome.

View into disability trust

WINDSOR FELLOWSHIP: Emily van Vliet from the Dame Hannah Rogers Trust spoke of the work done for children and adults with disabilities at Seale-Hayne near Newton Abbot and their premises at Ivybridge near Plymouth.

In 1767 Dame Hannah Rogers left £10,000 in her will for the care of poor children and from this start the Trust now offers innovative and person-centred care, either on a day-to-day basis or, where necessary, full time. The activities include horticulture, music, arts and outdoor pursuits as well as support for families.

Emily showed a video of some of the children and told of their current fundraising towards the cost of a new bus; £24,000 has already been raised towards the £52,000 cost. A donation was made by the Windsor Fellowship towards this worthwhile endeavour.

ROUND UP

AXE RIVER: At September's meeting the ladies enjoyed an 'Arresting Evening' when joined by Sergeant Matt Hale of Devon Constabulary and Steve, a Police Community Support Officer from Axminster.

Members were told of the roles undertaken by both officers, and the day to day work involved in the modern method of policing. Members could ask questions relating to legal matters, as well as local and personal issues requiring police intervention.

Forthcoming events include a Craft Club meeting, the November Birthday Meal and the coach trip to Exeter Cathedral for the WI Carol Concert.

Meetings are at 7.30pm in the United Reform Church Hall, Chard Road, Axminster on the third Tuesday of each month. All visitors welcome. Contact Marcia on 01297 32837

COLYTON: The President, Shelagh Derwent, welcomed new member Catherine Heap and thanked Sallie Herniman for presiding over the previous meeting and also everyone who helped with the Carnival. Colyton WI raised £630 for Carnival Funds and gained a second prize in the Walking Procession.

The October Group Meeting had a Halloween theme and everyone enjoyed the Quiz.

Margaret Barker gave a report on the Autumn Council Meeting in Barnstaple and admired the excellent flower arranging demonstration by Michael Boyer.

Members can look forward to the Beer Quiz on November 10th. Brenda Clark will represent the WI at the Seaton Friends' Care at Home Hospice meeting to celebrate their first year. Members were reminded to make their views known over plans for local hospitals.

Members were entertained with jokes from Jean Underdown and poems, amusing and serious, from Teresa, Brenda, Elizabeth and others.

Tea was served by Brenda Clark and Katie Darby.

Competition: 'Jack O'Lantern' was won by Shelagh Derwent. Seasonal Flower Arrangement: 1st Jean Underdown, 2nd Brenda Clark, 3rd Penny Cogan.

DON'T MISS OTTERY'S SPECTACULAR TAR BARREL TRADITION!

HISTORY

THE age old West Country tradition of celebrating the 5th November, with torchlight processions and burning barrels is still very much part of the social calendar within Ottery St. Mary. The historic town is famed for it's annual extravaganza, which sees flaming tar barrels carried throughout the town on the shoulders of the brave few; the only place in the country where you can still see full sized lighted tar barrels in exhilaratingly close proximity.

COMING TO THE EVENT

ON an Autumn evening with ash and soot a plenty, it is wise to where appropriate clothing; garments which can garner smoky aromas to remind you of an enjoyable evening of entertainment. Sensible shoes are a good idea too, as crowd numbers have a tendency to be high; such is the thrill of the fiery chase.

Waste stations are placed in Mill Street and in Sainsbury's car park where the toilets are situated for the event. Please help reduce and recycle by using these and the plastic pint glass collection pipes attached to lamp and signposts around the town.

You can follow all live event information via the Facebook and twitter pages.

DRIVING TO THE EVENT

THERE are five car parks that are compulsory on the night. There is no vehicle access to the town on 5th November and no parking available other than these 5 car parks.

Depending on weather conditions leading up to and on the day of the event itself, will determine which car parks out of 1, 2 and 3 will be used in which order.

Please allow plenty of time to come to the event; there are a limited amount of roads leading into the parking locations around the town, which are a good walk away from the Centre.

Parking charges for cars in all locations is £10 per car, £40 for minibuses, £75 for 26 Seat coaches and £150 for 52+ seat coaches/buses.

CAR PARK 1: Barrack Road

The main car park, which is situated off Barrack Road, B3174. Access is available from the Daisy Mount exit of the A30.

CAR PARK 2: Strawberry Lane

Car park 2 is located on Strawberry Lane, which is Ottery Saint Mary Cricket Club. There is a limited amount of space at this location. Access only from Barrack Road, B3174.

CAR PARK 3: Fennimore

Car park 3 is located on the Fennimore Industrial Estate. This is also the Disabled parking location.

CAR PARK 4: Otter Nurseries

Car park 4, which is also the main coach park is located at Otter Nurseries, Gosford Road. All access from the A30 is via the B3177 via Alington. Coach Parking charges: £40 for minibuses, £75 for 26 seater coaches and £150 for 52+

seat coaches/buses

CAR PARK 5: Ottery Football Club

Car Park 5 is Ottery Football Club which is located off Butts Road, Ottery Saint Mary. All access from the A30 is via the B3177 via Alington.

No other parking will be available due to the necessity for clear ways on all roads leading into the town for emergency vehicle access. Road closure into Ottery St Mary will take effect from 4pm on 5th November 2016. A diversion route for residents is provided via the Sidmouth Road, through to Long Dogs Lane, down to Slade Road, onto Chineway Road, into Kennaway Road which leads to Higher Ridgeway and exits out onto North Street. All monies raised from car parking charges go towards the running of the event and to the charities and organisations that help on the night.

POPPY APPEAL

LIVE ON: TO THE MEMORY OF THE FALLEN AND THE FUTURE OF THE LIVING

WHAT IS THE POPPY APPEAL?

The Poppy Appeal is the Royal British Legion's biggest fundraising campaign held every year in November, the period of Remembrance.

EACH year, an army of volunteers distribute our iconic paper poppies throughout the nation, collecting donations in return to help support the vital work we do for the Armed Forces community.

Members of the public wear the paper poppy on their chest as a symbol of Remembrance: to remember the fallen Service men and women killed in conflict.

A number of Remembrance events, such as Remembrance Sunday, are held during the Poppy Appeal to commemorate the fallen.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN:

THE first Poppy Appeal was held in 1921, the founding year of The Royal British Legion. Red silk poppies, inspired by the famous First World War poem In Flanders Fields, sold out instantly and raised more than £106,000. The funds helped WW1 veterans find employment and housing after the war.

The following year, the Poppy Factory was set up, employing disabled ex-Servicemen to create the poppies to sell during the appeal. Today, the factory still produces millions of poppies each year.

VOLUNTEER FOR THE POPPY APPEAL

Become part of our fantastic Poppy Appeal volunteer team and help support the Armed Forces community. We need over 300,000 volunteers during October and November so there's always room for one more.

THERE are many ways to volunteer to help the Legion and you don't need to be a Legion member or have links to the Armed Forces to volunteer with us.

However you decide to get involved, you will be making a huge difference to the lives of the Armed Forces community. There are an estimated 6.5 to 6.7 million members of this community living in the UK. Those of working age are more likely than the general population to be out of work, have money problems, have unpaid caring responsibilities or have health conditions that limit their activity. We're working hard to meet the needs of veterans, Service people and their dependants but we need you to help us! In return for your valuable time, you can:

- Learn new or improve existing skills
- Gain experience of volunteering for a successful, national charity for your CV
- Meet new people and make friends
- Get involved in your local community
- Increase confidence and self-esteem

Explore our volunteering FAQs on our website: www.britishlegion.org.uk or get in touch with us to volunteer.

Take a look at The Royal British Legion volunteers induction training for a comprehensive overview of all the key services provided by The Royal British Legion - also viewable on our website www.britishlegion.org.uk.

ARCADIA JAZZ TO PLAY POPPY APPEAL CONCERTS

CLIVE Smith's first encounter with Humphrey Lyttelton was as a 9-year-old Cornet player in Barnet Town Band.

Clive said: "After listening to Humphrey on the radio, I wrote to him and a week later I received his reply, the letter contained golden advice to a young trumpet player.

Forty years later a chance meeting with Kathy Stobart in Axminster changed my life. After talking to Kathy she insisted that I should start playing again and gave me 10 days to get my 'lip in'.

"Meeting several local musicians who all wanted to play jazz, I went on to form the East Devon Jazz Orchestra from which Arcadia was formed. I then met Kathy's boss, Humphrey Lyttelton and with his encouragement and new arrangements by his arranger Pete Strange, 'Arcadia' had the lift it needed.

"From that time, Arcadia supported Humphrey in concert several times. I watched Humphrey's concerts from the wings so often that he once joked that I had become his extra band member. When my second son was born my wife and I named him Peter after Mr Strange. A week later I received a large parcel which contained a new Pete Strange composition called Blues For My Name-sake."

In 2017 Clive Smith and his Arcadia Jazz Band are planning several concerts working alongside The Royal British Legion and their Poppy Appeal with his memories of Humphrey's concerts.

WAYS TO VOLUNTEER:

We rely on volunteers such as our Caseworkers, Visitors, Information volunteers and Fundraisers to help us continue our work to raise money and support the Armed Forces community. Find out how just a little of your time can make a big difference.

RAISE MONEY FOR THE POPPY APPEAL: The Poppy Appeal is our biggest fundraising appeal held each year in late October and early November. Volunteers are the driving force behind the appeal with over 300,000 involved around the country. Please join us.

WORK WITH THOSE WE HELP: The Royal British Legion works throughout the year to provide important information and support to members of the Armed Forces community. We also aim to raise public awareness about what we do.

Volunteer as a caseworker, to visit veterans or in one of our Care Homes or Pop In centres to help us provide much needed support.

HELP IN ONE OF OUR OFFICES:

Support the Legion's Remembrance activities and support all the ways that we pay tribute to Service people and veterans.

VOLUNTEER AS PART OF A GROUP: Gather together your colleagues, community group, school mates and family to help the Legion and enjoy a great day out. Serving and ex-Service personnel and Cadet Groups are very welcome.

HELP THE NATION REMEMBER: Help with the Legion's memorials and Remembrance activities to support all the ways that we pay tribute to Service people and veterans.

MORE INFORMATION: Please explore the benefits of volunteering, our volunteering FAQs on our website: www.britishlegion.org.uk

THE HIDDEN ECHOES OF INJURY IN AFGHANISTAN

Stewart saw action in Bosnia, Iraq and Afghanistan, but the biggest danger he would face were the memories he took home with him.

FROM BASIC TO BOSNIA: Stewart grew up wanting to join the Royal Marines, just like his grandad. But when he went to sign up at the age of 17 he was told that he was underweight, so Stewart joined the Army instead.

He completed his basic training and joined the Welsh Guards. Just before his 18th birthday, Stewart found himself in Bosnia.

"That was a massive culture shock, just all the things I took for granted, like roads. I wasn't allowed to buy a pint but there I was taking weapons off men who used to be in the Bosnian and Serbian Army."

INTO DANGER: In 2003 Stewart heard that he was going to be deployed to Iraq.

"The first thing I did was call my mum to tell her I was going. I think I rang her for comfort."

Though Iraq felt more real than his previous deployments, he still didn't have a sense of danger. He had a going away party the night before he left.

"It felt more exciting than daunting. In training, we talked about the danger; you'd have someone playing at being shot in the leg and we'd have to deal with it. But it was never real. Even though we were hearing about people being shot and seeing the coffins coming back - it still didn't register how dangerous the place was."

It wasn't until Stewart was out there that things became real.

"One of the lads was in a Land Rover when they got hit by an IED. I remember the vehicle coming back in and there were blood spots on the Land Rover where he'd been sitting.

That's when it became a question of not if, but when something would happen to the lads.

I made a decision back then on what I wanted to do with the rest of my life, what I wanted to do when I got home."

Luckily Stewart made it through the rest of the tour unscathed. His unit was flown back into Brize Norton in Oxfordshire and the air of relief at nearly being home was palpable.

"When we were allowed to go back home I think everyone smashed the motorway at 100 miles an hour to get home to their families.

"I remember coming home, walking into the house and seeing my wife at the kitchen table. As I walked up to her, she was speechless, and I got down on one knee and I asked her to marry me.

"Luckily for me she said yes."

INJURY IN AFGHANISTAN: Time passed and life was good for Stewart. He became a father for the second time, and he started doing courses. He was able to take his children to school and live a normal life, and then came the news that troops were going to be sent to Afghanistan.

Stewart was recalled to his battalion and was told that he was going to deploy with eleven others in 2012 in a Police Mentor Advisory Group (PMAG) role.

"During that tour," Stewart says, "It was going really well. The police were listening to what we were saying, taking on the medical and patrol lessons. The rapport was fantastic, we'd have laughs and share meals.

"Then on July 1 we went on a late afternoon patrol. We had a team of eight as we were undermanned at the time, and four lads went into the compound while I and three others waited outside.

"We then heard a gun blast, and it became apparent that there was only one guy waiting in the compound. He was dressed as an Afghan policeman but he was a Taliban fighter, and he'd shot and killed three of our guys and severely injured our platoon commander.

At this time, we didn't know if the lads were dead or not.

We were giving them first aid and got them on the chopper to Camp Bastion. But when we got back to a safe location we found out that they'd all been pronounced dead on arrival at Bastion."

Despite this blow to their team, they still had a job to carry out. But things weren't going so well anymore. Stewart and his team started getting sent into traps by the locals.

They were travelling down the 611, the main road that went through Sangin to Kajaki, when an IED went off under their vehicle.

EVERYTHING WENT DARK: Stewart was flown back to Birmingham with damaged frontal, temporal and optical lobes.

It was a long period of recovery for Stewart, but he found that as he got better physically he became worse mentally. He was shouting at the kids and arguing with his wife.

"I was asking my wife to leave me. I was massively negative to be around at the time, but I didn't realise it. I felt like I was in a massive amount of pain.

"I was too scared to sleep because I was having nightmares that were so frightening I was wetting myself."

This is when Stewart went out to the beach, looked at sea and thought about swimming out until he couldn't swim back.

There are not many lives that can point to such a knife edge, such a point where it could go either way. Stewart had faced so much in Afghanistan and overcome injury, but now risked losing it all.

With the waves crashing onto the beach in front of him, he was saved by the thought of his little daughters.

"I thought about my girls growing up without me, being bullied at school because I'm not there."

So Stewart turned around, walked back into the kitchen and told his wife what he was thinking.

She immediately called 999 and got him admitted to a local mental health unit.

"It was from there that I started to accept it. Until you want to get better, you can't start doing something about it and get better."

A NEW GENERATION OF VETERANS NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT: Stewart was diagnosed with mental illness in 2012.

With help from The Legion, he's now taking on challenges like climbing Mount Kilimanjaro.

Your donations help us to be there for people like Stewart.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY:

Remembrance Sunday, which falls on 13 November in 2016, is a day for the nation to remember and honour those who have sacrificed themselves to secure and protect our freedom.

NATIONAL SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE AT THE CENOTAPH: The National Service of Remembrance, held at The Cenotaph in Whitehall on Remembrance Sunday, ensures that no-one is forgotten as the nation unites to honour all who have suffered or died in war.

HM The Queen will pay tribute alongside Members of the Cabinet, Opposition Party leaders, former Prime Ministers, the Mayor of London and other ministers. Representatives of the Armed Forces, Fishing Fleets and Merchant Air and Navy will be there, as well as faith communities and High Commissioners of Commonwealth countries.

HOW TO TAKE PART IN THE NATIONAL SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE: Each year, veterans participate in the moving March Past. Places to take part in the Cenotaph March Past on Remembrance Sunday 2016 will be allocated via Associations. If you are an individual wishing to apply for tickets please contact your relevant Association to apply.

If you wish to attend the service as a spectator, you can find further information on the website of the Department of Culture, Media & Sport, who are responsible for organising the event.

HISTORY OF THE POPPY:

DURING the First World War (1914-1918) much of the fighting took place in Western Europe. Previously beautiful countryside was blasted, bombed and fought over, again and again. The landscape swiftly turned to fields of mud: bleak and barren scenes where little or nothing could grow.

Bright red Flanders poppies (Papaver rhoeas) however, were delicate but resilient flowers and grew in their thousands, flourishing even in the middle of chaos and destruction. In early May 1915, shortly after losing a friend in Ypres, a Canadian doctor, Lt Col John McCrae was inspired by the sight of poppies to write a now famous poem called 'In Flanders Fields'.

McCrae's poem inspired an American academic, Moina Michael, to make and sell red silk poppies which were brought to England by a French woman, Anna Guérin. The (Royal) British Legion, formed in 1921, ordered 9 million of these poppies and sold them on 11 November that year.

The poppies sold out almost immediately and that first ever 'Poppy Appeal' raised over £106,000; a considerable amount of money at the time. This was used to help WW1 veterans with employment and housing.

The following year, Major George Howson set up the Poppy Factory to employ disabled ex-Servicemen. Today, the factory and the Legion's warehouse in Aylesford produces millions of poppies each year.

The demand for poppies in England was so high that few were reaching Scotland. Earl Haig's wife established the 'Lady Haig Poppy Factory' in Edinburgh in 1926 to produce poppies exclusively for Scotland. Over 5 million Scottish poppies (which have four petals and no leaf unlike poppies in the rest of the UK) are still made by hand by disabled ex-Servicemen at Lady Haig's Poppy Factory each year and distributed by our sister charity Poppyscotland.

TWO MINUTE SILENCE:

Each year at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, we observe a Two Minute Silence. Armistice Day on 11 November marks the end of the First World War and is a day to remember and honour those who have paid the price for our freedom.

WHY THE ACT OF REMEMBRANCE MATTERS: Great Britain still believes strongly in remembering those who fought not only in World Wars, but the more than 12,000 British Servicemen and women killed or injured since 1945.

The Royal British Legion supports silences observed during both Remembrance Sunday services and on 11 November, Armistice Day, itself. The act of Remembrance rightly has a place in - and impact on - our lives, no matter which day of the week it might fall upon.

WHERE TO ATTEND THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION'S REMEMBRANCE SERVICE: When 11 November falls on a weekday, the Legion hosts 'Silence in the Square'. The event, held in Trafalgar Square, London, sees members of the public placing poppy petals into the capital's famous fountains after observing the silence.

Legion Branches around the country participate in local Remembrance services both on Remembrance Sunday and on 11 November.

To assist in organising your own act of Remembrance, download our Two minute silence mp3 file from the website: www.britishlegion.org.uk. It includes the Last Post at the beginning and Reveille to end the silence.

#TWO MINUTE SILENCE: In the days before Armistice Day 2015 we asked people to show that were taking part in the Two Minute Silence on Armistice Day.

By holding a poppy to their lips they showed the nation that they were ready to mark the #TwoMinuteSilence in Remembrance of those who laid down their lives.

KEEPING THEIR MEMORY ALIVE:

Those who have made the ultimate sacrifice, in two World Wars and more recent conflicts, are remembered on memorials and through Remembrance services across the nation.

THE Royal British Legion was formed to support the veterans of the Great War which was hoped to be "the war to end all wars". But since then, Britain has been involved in many other wars and fields of Service, creating a continuous supply of Service men and women, and their families, who need our assistance. We are recognised as the Nation's custodians of Remembrance.

To ensure that the memory of those who have given their lives in the Service of their country, will continue and be honoured - for evermore, the nation has created memorials and participates in acts of Remembrance.

The Cenotaph in Whitehall and numerous war memorials around the country commemorate those who gave the ultimate sacrifice in the First and Second World Wars.

And to commemorate those who lost their lives in the Service of their country since 1948, the Armed Forces Memorial was opened in 2007 in the grounds of the National Memorial Arboretum in Staffordshire.

Each spring, the names of those who have died in conflict, as a result of terrorist action or killed on duty, in the previous calendar year, are added to this impressive memorial, as a permanent reminder of their sacrifice.

Axminster and District Choral Society announces soloists for its November Concert

THE AXMINSTER and District Choral Society will perform Handel's Alexander's Feast in the Minster on Saturday, November 19th at 7.30pm

The choir of more than eighty singers has been rehearsing since early September under its Director of Music Peter Parshall.

The performance will be conducted by Associate Music Director Judy Martin

The society is pleased to welcome back three established and talented young local soloists who were well received by an appreciative audiences in corresponding events over the past two years.

Chloe Stratta (soprano) graduated with a first class degree from Manchester University. She has performed in oratorio, opera and recitals; in particular working as a soprano soloist in the South West. Her solo concert repertoire includes Handel's Messiah, Mendelssohn's Elijah, Brahms' Ein Deutsches Requiem, Faure's Requiem, Vivaldi's Gloria and Haydn's Nelson Mass, in Exeter Cathedral.

Michael Graham (25) is the Director of Chapel Music at Exeter Cathedral and Director of Budleigh Salterton Male Voice Choir. His solo singing performances include Handel's Messiah, Mendelssohn's Elijah and Haydn's Creation.

Julian Rippon (baritone) is in constant demand as a soloist around the South West, performing in a wide range of choral and operatic works with many of the foremost groups in the region. He is a full-time member of Exeter Cathedral Choir and a Japanese translator.

Alexander's Feast, also known as "The Power of Music" is a beautiful and dramatic choral work, which was composed in 1736 in honour of St Cecilia, the patron saint of music. It describes a banquet held by Alexander the Great and his mistress Thaïs in the captured Persian city of Persepolis, during which the musician Timotheus sings and plays his lyre, arousing various moods in Alexander until he is finally incited to burn the city down in revenge for his dead Greek soldiers.

The piece was a great success and it encouraged Handel to make the transition from writing Italian operas to English choral works such as the famous Messiah.

Tickets will be £12 and £15 from Archway Books, Church Street, Axminster or phone 01404 881838 or members of the choir.

The small hall with the BIG reputation

David Hall

FOLK • ROOTS
ACOUSTIC • JAZZ
BLUES • DANCE
THEATRE • FILM

MUSICALLY, October was a very busy month at The David Hall with four great, but very different, gigs.

On Friday 7th we welcomed for the first time Newcastle's 'favourite sons' - Rob Heron and The Tea Pad Orchestra - who delighted the audience with their own brand of Western Swing, Gypsy Jazz and Country or, as they have coined it, 'North Eastern Swing'. The material was all self-penned and full of character, satire and good old fashioned 'hollerin'. This hot five-piece gave a performance of sheer quality which left the audience shouting for more. A great gig which I am planning to repeat in 2018.

On Saturday 15th we welcomed back the Brittany-based trio, The Churchfitters, who are a Folk band like no other. A double base made out of a saucepan and heart-wrenching vocals accompanied by a musical saw gives you some idea of just how unique they are. The three virtuoso musicians from England and France strutted their stuff on a stage that bristled with instruments. You name it, and they probably played it! This performance was loved by everyone who now have no doubt that The Churchfitters are one of the most entertaining acts on the circuit.

On Saturday 22nd another band with us for the first time - The Keston Cobblers Club - enthralled a large audience with music which is not just uplifting, it is a full-on Celebration of Folk Music! What dazzling musicianship they produced - which clearly showed why, in a short space of time, they have become one of the genre's most sought-after bands. Five musicians loving what they do radiated to the audience, who have already requested their early return. They were supported by singer/songwriter Jim "Small-town" Jones, who hails from Devon, and, along with guitarist Dave Little, gave a well-received performance featuring Jim's well-crafted songs.

Phillip Henry and Hannah Martin returned on Saturday, October 29th, following their memorable performance in March 2015. This multi-award-winning duo showed just why they are in such demand with a performance that was both exciting and innovative. The whole gig was very different with the stage not being used and the event set up across the width of the Hall. These two fantastic musicians produced a sound that spans many genres and the large audience left totally happy and impressed, requesting that I get them back again soon. So - they are also on my list for 2018! Yet another memorable night at The David Hall...

You will not be surprised to read that November is also busy in the Hall, with many surprises!

On Saturday 5th we have a visit from the virtuoso guitarist, Clive Carroll. Clive is without doubt one of the most respected and admired guitarists performing today. His masterful compositions, coupled with unparalleled technical skills, and his enthralling and entertaining performances, makes this a concert not to be missed. Clive is also leading an acoustic guitar workshop in the Hall between 3pm and 5pm on Saturday.

For something quite different, on Friday 11th November we will again be holding a "Middle Aged Crisis Disco". Come and strut your funky stuff from 7.30pm to 11pm to the music you know and love from the 1950's to 2000.

On Saturday 19th, the traditional Welsh band Calan will perform for us for the first time. This five-piece group breathes fire into the old traditions with their infectious rhythms and high-voltage routines before melting into some of the most beautiful and haunting songs. Great fun, a sense of humour and step dancing from a champion dancer makes for a wonderful show. I love this band and I know all who come will love them too!

Finally, on Friday 25th we welcome yet another group performing for us for the first time when one of the world's most prolific fiddle bands, Blazin' Fiddles, will be on stage. Over the past 17 years no other band has quite managed to capture the same excitement, passion and sensitivity of Scottish music all at once. With a Blazers performance comes the rare opportunity to hear regional expressions from Scotland's Highlands and Islands. This is a truly fantastic "super group" who we are really lucky to get to perform in our special space. Four fiddles, guitar and piano provide a sound like no other. This will be a musically intoxication evening for all!

Other, non-musical, events in November are listed below and a check on the website www.thedavidhall.org.uk will provide full details.

Please note that the new David Hall programme, covering January to June 2017, will be released on Wednesday 16th November and tickets go on sell on Friday 18th. There are many events that will prove to be extremely popular so early booking is advisable!

Next month's preview of December will, hopefully, put you in "Christmas Mood"!

Till then - Cheers!

Further events at The David Hall in November

On Friday, November 4th, Petherton Picture Show will present The Last Man on the Moon (PG), starring Eugene Cernan, Alan Bean and Charles Duke; and on Friday 18th, Florence Foster Jenkins (PG), featuring Meryl Streep and Hugh Grant.

On Saturday 5th there will be a Craft Fair from 9.30am - 12.30pm. Enjoy a relaxing morning wandering around the delightful stalls of our craft producers. Find a 'one of a kind' art work, great for that special Christmas present, or a treat for yourself. Entry is free.

Acoustic Night is on Sunday 20th, at 7.30pm. All performers have the opportunity to deliver for 10-15 minutes with full PA and lighting system. If you wish to perform, please email folk@chriswatts.org to secure a place.

On Saturday, November 26th there will be a Film with Food evening featuring Dad's Army (PG) starring Catherine Zeta-Jones, Bill Nighy and Michael Gambon. Come as you are, or dress up suitably for the film. A delicious, appropriately-themed light supper will be served. Ticket cost £10 with advance booking by Wednesday, November 23rd.

Sunday, November 27th is the date for The David Hall Christmas Tea Party. Enjoy live music, Christmas stalls and children's entertainment - plus, be part of the countdown for the South Petherton Christmas Lights Switch-on. Start time is 3pm and entry is free.

The David Hall's popular monthly Coffee Morning will be on Wednesday 30th, from 10am - 12pm. Pop in for a cup of real coffee and a chat; look around the book and bric-a-brac stalls and listen to some live music. Entry is free.

For further details about any of the above please check the website www.thedavidhall.org.uk or call 01460 240 340.

Classical concert at Henhayes Centre

THE HENHAYES Community Centre in Crewkerne will be hosting an evening of Light Classical Music on Friday, November 11th.

Kim Connor (piano), Jess Dalwood (harp) and Emily Dalwood (vocals) will play a varied programme including Rachmaninov, Debussy and Liszt as well as well-known songs such as Somewhere over the Rainbow, Scarborough Fair and Moon River.

A supper of Steak and Ale Pie (or a vegetarian alternative) followed by Apple Fool will be served before the concert. Tickets priced at £18 to include supper or £10 without supper are available from the Henhayes Centre. Tickets must be purchased in advance. Supper is at 6.30pm and the concert starts at 7.45pm. There will be a licensed bar open from 6.00pm and a raffle. All proceeds will support the work of the Centre.

The Woman in Black comes to the Northcott

CELEBRATING its 27th anniversary in the West End, the unanimously acclaimed stage production of The Woman in Black comes to the Exeter Northcott Theatre in November.

Stephen Mallatratt's adaptation of Susan Hill's best-selling novel tells the story of a lawyer obsessed with a curse that he believes has been cast over him and his family by the spectre of a 'Woman in Black'. He engages a young actor to help him tell his story and exorcise the fear that grips his soul. It begins innocently enough, but as they reach further into his darkest memories, they find themselves caught up in a world of eerie marshes and moaning winds. The borders between make believe and reality begin to blur and the flesh begins to creep.

The Woman in Black was first performed at the Theatre-By-The-Sea in Scarborough in 1987 to rave reviews. The production opened in the West End in 1989 where it has enjoyed continued success as well as numerous national tours. The production's huge popularity has reached a global level, having toured to the United States, South America, Tokyo and Singapore.

Now celebrating its 27th year in the West End, over 7 million people have lived to tell the tale of one of the most terrifying and successful theatre events ever staged. In 2012, Susan Hill's novel The Woman in Black was released as a major motion picture, starring Daniel Radcliffe, which successfully became the highest grossing British horror film in 20 years, and the sequel to that film, The Woman in Black 2: Angel Of Death came out in 2014.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ILMINSTER ARTS CENTRE THIS NOVEMBER

SO, THE clocks have gone back and we're back on Greenwich Mean Time again. The days are getting shorter by the minute but November's events at Ilminster Arts Centre are guaranteed to banish the winter blues.

The exhibition in the gallery gathers together a talented collective of artists whose work is proudly 'Made in Glastonbury'. Inspired by the beauty and spirituality of the Isle of Avalon, the six artists use different mediums and styles to explore the mists and mysteries of this magical corner of Somerset. Come and enjoy beautifully evocative wildlife paintings, haunting landscape photography, ingenious hand-thrown pottery and glass, multi-media mosaics and delicate paintings on silk. Until 26 November.

Our 'A Way with Words' evening on Fri 4th celebrates words, spoken and sung. This friendly and informal event sees local word-smiths taking their work from page to stage as they perform their own words, be it poetry, short 'flash' fiction or song lyrics, all following the theme of 'A Winter's Tale'. There will also be music from Andrew Sutton, and the bar will be open all evening. Do come along.

On Friday, November 11th the Magnificent 7 Jazz Band gallop into town to perform works by the great masters of early jazz, as well as pieces from the swing era. The band's up-tempo line-up includes some of the most sought-after musicians on the jazz scene today, and features the talents of Amy Roberts and Richard Exall on sax, and Arts Centre regular Craig Milverton on piano. We have been warned this band takes no prisoners - advance booking is recommended for what promises to be an enthralling concert!

Every Friday this month we have a different workshop to whet your creative juices, starting on the 4th with a one-day watercolour workshop led by artist Nicky Clarke. All abilities are welcome, whether you're starting off on your watercolour journey or wanting to finesse your techniques. Learn the eco-friendly craft of Rag Rugging on Fri 11th; bring along your textile scraps and convert them into colourful rugs and wall hangings. Our Readers Group discuss their latest book on the afternoon of the 11th. Discover the tactile and rewarding art of Felting in Geraldine Field's popular monthly workshop on the 18th - you can make a finished article in a day! Clare Anderson returns on Friday 25th to reveal the techniques behind Mixed Media Mosaics - it's a great craft for using up materials that might otherwise be thrown away. This month's Children's Art Chest workshop is on Sat 19th; with the theme of "November Night Sky" this seasonally adjusted workshop will explore a variety of painting techniques.

Bar open from 6pm for evening screenings!

Steve Harley's tour takes Timeless Flight

STEVE HARLEY is back on the road with his Acoustic Trio line-up with nine dates confirmed for November 2016. This year sees the 40th anniversary of 'Timeless Flight', a collection that Steve has often said is his favourite of his albums, and much of the material will be explored again by the trio on this tour. Additionally, the setlist for these November shows will be full of familiar classics, from 'Judy Teen' to 'Make Me Smile', plus the latest single 'Ordinary People', via 'Sebastian' and many more favourite album tracks, there will be lots for the fans to interact with, as is always the way of a Steve Harley performance.

After a summer of outdoor shows with the full rock band, Steve is looking forward to this return to the more intimate UK concert halls. He will be accompanied on all dates on this tour by virtuoso players and long-standing Cockney Rebel members, James Lascelles (piano/percussion) and Barry Wickens (violin/ guitar/ mandolin).

There's no better time to reacquaint yourself with one of our finest song-writing talents. Rod Stewart, who recorded Steve's song 'A Friend For Life' on his latest Platinum-selling album, described the original Cockney Rebel as "One of the finest lyricists Britain has ever produced." Don't miss Steve Harley on this tour: all the hits you love - and a couple of his favourites too!

Steve Harley brings his tour to Yeovil's Octagon Theatre on Monday, November 21st. For more details visit www.octagon-theatre.co.uk

Simon and Garfunkel Through the Years

ACCOMPANIED by a live string quartet, Bookends perform authentic Simon & Garfunkel covers. Made up of Dan Haynes and Pete Richards, Bookends are 'simply breathtaking'.

Performing the songs against a backdrop of images and video footage, their delicate recreation of the unmistakable sound of the American folk-rock duo is something of a masterpiece.

Hits include 'The Sound of Silence', 'Mrs Robinson', 'The Boxer' and 'Bridge Over Troubled

Water.' Plus early folk gems and music from Simon & Garfunkel's solo careers, the concert is a must see for any fan.

Bookends: Simon & Garfunkel Through the Years comes to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Saturday, November 12th at 8pm.

Date confirmed and tickets on sale now for Yeovilton Air Day

THE ANNUAL Royal Naval Air Station (RNAS) Yeovilton International Air Day in Somerset will take place on Saturday, July 8th 2017. Planning is well under way for this popular 'Fly Navy' airshow which will showcase the Royal Navy's Fleet Air Arm, its current capabilities and historic accomplishments.

2017 is set to be an exciting year for RNAS Yeovilton and the Fleet Air Arm as the first Royal Navy aircraft is set to touch down on the deck of HMS Queen Elizabeth, as she sets sail to begin sea trials. Operational evaluation and testing of the F-35B Lightning multirole fighter continues apace whilst aircraft maintainers and handlers are busily getting accustomed to the new type. The Wildcat helicopter takes over as the wings of front-line destroyers and frigates and the Commando Helicopter Force squadrons, now reunited at RNAS Yeovilton, take part in various exercises in readiness to deploy at a moment's notice.

The Air Station's gates will be open to 40,000 visitors, just as they were 70 years ago in 1947 at the first ever airshow at RNAS Yeovilton, providing the perfect opportunity to see our equipment and meet our personnel first hand.

Over five hours of amazing flying displays and an extensive static display will feature historic naval aircraft and their modern day counterparts in spectacular role demonstrations to acknowledge the Fleet Air Arm's role in Protecting Our Nation's Interests. UK and foreign military formation and solo display teams have also been invited to participate at the airshow.

Alongside the magnificent flying display there will also be a huge array of ground attractions, from engineering fairs to the latest defence technology exhibitions, Service displays, trade stalls and arena displays. For the thrill seekers there will be simulators, fairground rides and helicopter pleasure flights to enjoy.

Air Day tickets are available to order from 12pm TODAY Tuesday, November 1st at a discounted 'Earlybird' rate with no booking fees for a limited period. These are priced lower than the usual advance tickets which will go on general sale in the New Year.

HOW WELL IS YOUR RENTAL MANAGED?

I HAVE heard so many "horror" stories in the past years about different situations that have arisen on rental properties. Most of these issues have stemmed from bad management – bad communication and lack of regular property visits. It would also seem that many landlords are under the misapprehension that it is still hard to get bad tenants out of their properties and that it is more difficult on furnished properties, thankfully this is not the case now.

There is a lack of good, rental property, with 65% of the population now renting, we need to be looking at ways to offer a good, fair service to tenants and landlords, as it can still offer a very good yield on your investment, usually in excess of 5%, which is far more than most banks can offer.

A robust ARLA approved tenancy agreement, extensive inventory and schedule of condition, thorough referencing of tenants along with a Rent guarantee policy, are essential at the beginning of the tenancy.

Having confidence & trust in your letting agent is key, but of course this is usually built up over time or being recommended on reputation. A professional, efficient service is essential to ensure happy landlords and tenants.

If you would like any advice on letting your property or any existing tenancies, please email me: meg@pennys.net or call to arrange an appointment: 01297 22224

PENNYS ESTATE AGENTS are delighted to be offering for sale this delightful, modern semi detached house which is offered to the market with no onward chain. ## Miles of smiles this winter with the latest offers from MG Motor UK

MG MOTOR UK has announced a range of tempting special offers* this winter, that make driving its MG3 supermini and MG GS SUV even more attractive. Available until the end of December, the 0% finance deals make owning a new MG even more affordable.

Born to suit your style, MG's next generation supermini – the MG3 – is fun on the inside and stylish on the outside. Packed with the latest technology, from distinctive LED daytime-running lights to DAB radio and Bluetooth audio streaming, the MG3 represents incredible value for money, retailing at just £8,399.

With special offers ranging from 0% APR (with a 20% deposit), a £900 contribution towards your deposit when financed on a personal contract purchase (PCP), or a range of personal (PCH) and business (BCH) contract hire packages from just £99 per month, there's no better time to join the MG3 party!

Whether it's a winter week-end getaway, the daily commute or a last minute dash to the shops for Christmas, the striking MG GS SUV is the perfect family run-around. With deals including a £660 contribution towards your deposit when financed on a personal contract purchase (PCP), 0% APR with just a 20% deposit monthly finance option and a five year / 80,000-mile (whichever occurs first) manufacturer parts and labour warranty – driving away in your dream car is easier than ever!

Matthew Cheyne, Head of Sales and Marketing for MG Motor UK, commented: "Our tempting range of special offers aims to give drivers an early Christmas present this winter.

"Alongside a whole host of finance deals, we're also offering a selection of incentives when test driving our MG3 supermini. Simply schedule a test drive with your local dealer and choose either a year's subscription to Days Out, a satnav, or 12-months' roadside assistance – fun to drive, fun to own, fun to buy!"

For more information about MG's latest special offers, visit www.mg.co.uk/offers-finance.

Volkswagen is geared up for its big SUV event

AS THE clocks go back and tough winter weather approaches Volkswagen is turning up the heat in the SUV sector with the launch of a suite of new offers on two of the most competitive entrants in the burgeoning market sector: the fully-connected new Tiguan and luxurious Touareg.

Both models benefit from attractive offers during Volkswagen's SUV Event, which begins at participating Volkswagen Retailers today and runs until 13 November. Among the Event's limited-time deals is an incentive for customers who finance a Tiguan or a Touareg in which they will receive their first two consecutive vehicle services free of charge.

As part of the Event, the all-new Tiguan is available with a deposit contribution of £1,000 at 5.1 per cent APR representative for customers taking advantage of a Volkswagen Financial Services' Solutions Personal Contract Plan. Standard equipment on all Tiguan includes Bluetooth telephone connectivity and the Composition Media infotainment system with an eight-inch colour touch-screen. For buyers of the SEL trim and above, this is upgraded to the Discover Navigation system. Meanwhile six airbags help to ensure the new Tiguan is rated at a maximum five-stars in the Euro NCAP safety assessment programme.

Today's Tiguan is packed with technology and connectivity. Also featuring on the SEL trim and above is Volkswagen's Active Info Display system, for instance, which turns the instrument binnacle into a 12.3-inch high resolution TFT screen with customisable menus and information. Meanwhile, Adaptive Cruise Control takes the strain out of driving in stop/go traffic.

Available in five distinct trim levels, there is a Tiguan for every type of user. Additionally, the Tiguan has a wide range of petrol and diesel engines and manual or DSG automatic gearbox options. Sitting at the top of the range is the storming new 240 PS 2.0-litre bi-turbo diesel Tiguan, available in SEL or R-Line trim.

In addition to the free servicing offer, and contribution towards the finance deposit, the Tiguan accessory Protection Pack is also discounted during the SUV Event. The protection pack comprises front and rear mud flaps as well as front and rear floor mats. It also includes a handy flexible boot liner. These accessories are usually priced at £280 RRP but, during the Event, are available for just £235 RRP.

For the Touareg, the accessory Transport Pack has been reduced from £507 RRP to £460 RRP. Included are roof bars, a 340-litre roof box in matt black, and a storage bag for the roof bars and supporting rods.

During the SUV Event the Touareg is available with a £3,000 deposit contribution for customers opting for a Volkswagen Financial Services' Solutions Personal Contract Plan when the 204 PS engine is selected, or with a £5,000 deposit contribution when the 262 PS engine is chosen. Both offers are available at 5.9 per cent APR representative.

The luxurious Volkswagen Touareg ensures a relaxed journey and at the same time benefits from permanent 4MOTION four-wheel drive to put the 'Utility' into SUV. Its driveline includes a limited-slip Torsen torque-sensing differential with an electronic differential lock on all four wheels, thus aiding traction and the Touareg's off-road ability.

Inside the Touareg, the plethora of standard equipment includes interior lighting, a multitude of useful sockets and storage compartments and 'Cricket' leather upholstery. Cruise control, 2Zone electronic air conditioning and parking sensors ensure it is highly equipped while offering strong value.

The Touareg R-Line boasts 20-inch 'Tarragona' alloy wheels and sports suspension, which is approximately 25 mm lower than that on the Touareg SE. Bi-xenon headlights, tinted glass from the B-pillar back and the R-Line bodykit make this version a particularly sporty drive.

Completing the line-up is the new Volkswagen Touareg R-Line Plus. Featuring 'Vienna' leather upholstery, 21-inch 'Mallory' wheels and Area View for an all-round 360-degree perspective of the Touareg, this is the ultimate in SUV technology.

For full details of the SUV Event, and all the cars in the Volkswagen range together with brochures and pricing and to use Volkswagen's online configurator, please visit www.volkswagen.co.uk.

SOUTH WEST PENINSULA LEAGUE – DIVISION ONE (E)

TEIGNMOUTH 3 AXMINSTER TOWN 0
SW Peninsula League Div 1 (E)
AXMINSTER Town's seven-game unbeaten run came to an end with a 3-0 defeat at Coombe Valley on Saturday.

Teignmouth carried a 1-0 lead into the half time interval courtesy of a Hayden Roe shot from the edge of the area midway through the first period.

Ryan Bush rounded Ax keeper Scott Wells-Burr to double the lead five minutes after the turnaround.

The pick of the goals rounded things off in the 70th minute with Jack Greenslade bursting through before unleashing a fierce drive that flashed into the top corner.

Next up for Axminster, now down in fourth spot in the table, was due to be Saturday's Devon Premier Cup round two tie. But scheduled visitors WALDON ATHLETIC of the South Devon Premier League side have withdrawn giving the Tigers free passage into the last 16.

Axminster: Scott Wells-Burr, Craig Every, Ben Clay, Mark Scott, Elliot Dyer, Chris Duchenski, Jamie Barfoot, Jonny Hurford, Nathan Warren, Danny Clay, Oscar Latas. Subs: Liam Cleal, Ben Vine, Tony Pinder.

MATCH REPORTS

BEER ALBION 6 EXMOUTH AMATURS 1

D&amp;E Premier

BEER Albion got their first league points of the season with a 6-1 trouncing of Exmouth Amateurs at the Furzebrake on Saturday writes Richard Honnor.

With former Exeter City centre back and Beer village resident Pat Baldwin making a rare appearance, the Fishermen looked assured in defence and his experience had a positive influence across the whole team.

Beer took the lead in the just before the half hour when Andrew Foster's cross was headed home by Chris Long.

But soon after this the Fishermen were dealt a cruel blow when keeper Mark Rooke came out to gather a high ball.

He appeared to be fouled as he took a heavy challenge in mid air and as he lay injured on the ground, the ball fell loose to Dan Tapp who scored from 18 yards.

Referee Philip Bialyk allowed the goal to stand despite strong protestations from the Beer players. Rooke was helped off with an ankle injury to be replaced between the sticks by Shaun Denslow.

Beer started the second half strongly and deservedly went in on 54 minutes when Baldwin found Walker who beat Exmouth keeper Brad Evans from close range.

The Fishermen increased their lead on the hour when Luke Morrison shrugged off a strong challenge to force the ball home.

Ten minutes later Walker hit the base of the post but George Harwood made it 4-1 in the 80th minute with a half-volley from Long's flick-on.

A minute later Clode scored Beer's 5th with a powerful header at the far post from Harwood's cross and just before the final whistle Long to set up Walker to place his shot past the keeper to round off the scoring.

Beer's man-of-the-match award was given on behalf of sponsors Beer Fish and Chips to midfielder George Harwood.

Next Saturday Beer entertain South Devon outfit East Allington Utd in the 3rd round of the Throgmorton Devon Premier Cup (2pm ko), the match sponsor is East Devon Physiotherapy at Sidford.

FENITON RES 2 MILLWEY RISE 3

D&amp;E Division Five

FOR the neutral this was a good game to watch but for those associated with either Club it was torture writes Dick Sturch.

Millwey, playing down the slope in the first half, went in front after 25 minutes thanks to a solo run by Levi Hoole who left three opponents in his wake and beat the keeper with a fierce shot.

This was how it remained for the rest of the first half with Millwey playing the final 10 minutes without Hoole who went off with a shoulder injury.

Hoole came back on at the resumption of the second period and within five minutes repeated his solo effort.

His hat-trick nearly arrived two minutes later when he latched onto a through ball from Nathan Wormsley only to see his shot smash against the crossbar.

This seemed to energise Feniton who reduced the deficit. A crucial moment came midway through the half when the referee awarded the home side a strongly contested penalty from which they equalised.

But it was Millwey who grabbed the winner in the dying seconds when Matty Lewis hit a great shot from 20 yards.

MILLWEY RISE RESERVES 3

CHAGFORD RESERVES 2

D&amp;E Division Nine

AFTER last week's defeat at Chagford in the reverse fixture, Millwey came back strongly to win 3-2.

Jack Bennett opened the scoring with a header but the visitors came back to equalise.

In the second half a well struck volley from Alex Rocket and a long range effort from Danny Larcombe put the home side in control at 3-1. Chagford did score from the penalty spot but far too late to affect the outcome.

Round-up

HONITON TOWN took over top place in Premier after they won 4-0 at HATHERLEIGH TOWN. Chris Long, Joe Mulhall, and an own goal put Honiton in charge and they later added a fourth from Dan Broom.

FENITON won a thriller at BOW AAC 5-4. Charlie Selley scored a hat-trick including two penalties with Ben Allen bagging the other two for fenny who's keeper Aidy Pullin saved a penalty.

NEWTON ST CYRES and SEATON TOWN shared a 1-1 draw.

COLYTON came from behind to beat WILLAND ROVERS 2-1. Lee Dixon gave the Rovers the lead from the penalty spot only for Jake Richards to equalise before half time. And it was Richards who grabbed the Tanners' winner in the 70th minute.

In Division Three AXMINSTER showed no mercy on lowly CULM UTD as Mark Hancock scored a hat-trick, Ben Turner twice, and Alex Wheatley a single in a 6-1 victory.

THORVERTON won the top match in Division Four 2-1 at OTTERTON ST MARY whose Chris Ambrose scored a late consolation.

Over at EXWICK VILLA, Lyme Regis were made to pay for defensive errors as they trailed 3-0 at half time. Ryan Fifer pulled one back with a superb chip 20 minutes from time.

Down in Division Eight goals from Steve Wooloff (2) and Sam Dibbling proved too much for KENTISBEARE as AXMINSTER clinched a 3-1 win at Tiger Way.

running chard road runners
Progress for Nina

CLAIRE Gibbs, Ryan Hebron-Wheatley and Helen Baxter took part in the HEREPATH TRAIL HALF MARATHON which hits the highest point of the Blackdown Hill and takes in Castle Neorocche.

Ryan pushed hard to make early headway while Helen and Clare were settling into their own battle as this race formed part of the CRR's town championship series.

Ryan crossed the line 102nd/210 in a time of 02:20:39. Helen finished 154th/210 in 02:43:10 just 11 seconds and three positions ahead of Claire.

Meanwhile, Nina

Wagstaff and Bernie Genge ran the DARTMOOR VALE MARATHON, a two lap road race heading out of Newton Abbott.

With the first lap rounded off the duo found themselves in the top 30 of the 80+ strong field and after a final push crossed the line in 13th and 14th in 03:28:46 and 03:28:47.

Bernie won his age group category and Nina taking overall 3rd Female place award and her first ever Marathon Negative split (Running the second half quicker than the first over the 26.2 mile distance).

Skipper Price scoops Ilton club double

OVER 50 guests recently celebrated the 2016 cricket season at Ilton Cricket Club.

The season saw the 1st XI finish 6th in Division Four of the Somerset Cricket League, and the 2nd XI finish 7th in Division 9S. However, it was the newly formed Ladies team who proved the most successful winning two, and coming runners up in the three tournaments that they played in.

Club Chairman Nick Watson presented the awards with Damian Price the star of the show taking home, both the 1st XI player & players player awards.

While in the 2nd XI, Dean Male was awarded the Player of the Year and Barry Isaacs the Players Player of the year awards.

The Midweek player of the Year went to Scott Welch, and the Sunday XI Player of the Year went to Andy Knight. Josh Phillips was named as the Young Player of the year following a number of impressive displays in both the 1st XI and 2nd XI, while the coveted Clubman award went to Chairman Nick Watson.

Two new awards were presented to the successful Ladies team. Emily White was the first recipient of 'The Shelley Trophy', which was awarded to her for showing the most improvement and enthusiasm, while "The Watson Trophy" was awarded to Amber Watson. This was awarded to her by her fellow teammates who held a vote on the evening.

A FULL week of fixtures in division one and now just the same two teams remain undefeated. Hi Q are top with four wins in four games thanks to their 30-17 win over Ford & Pentecost Panthers.

With Laura French playing well, Hi Q took an early lead and didn't look back despite fine play from Anna Barton.

Sidmouth Toucan Chicks are the other unbeaten side with three wins – the latest of which was a comprehensive 55-3 triumph over Hawks who remain at the foot of the table.

Hawks, who were hampered by playing the game a player short, had a star performer in Tara Andrews whilst Flora Hastie was the pick of the Chicks. Flamingos moved back into second with a hard fought 46-32 win over HNC Hot Shots for whom Charlie Gardiner played well with Olivia Warwick the star for the Flamingos.

Otters recorded their first win of the campaign when they came up against Signs South West in a game that was tight until the final quarter when Otters surged from 28-21 to finish victors by 45-28 thanks to good work from Vicky Carnall. Georgie Moss was the SSW player of the match.

Results: Flamingos 46 HNC Hot Shots 32, Otters 45 Signs SW 28, Sidmouth TC 55 Howden Hawks 3, Hi Q 30 F & P Panthers 17.

There were just two games in DIVISION TWO with Tip Top Trees beating Otter Valley 39-27 to move into second place. Aimee Vine was the pick of the Trees whilst Alice Quick was the Otter star performer.

The other match saw Pixies record their first win of the season with a 25-14 triumph over Swaggers. Once again Heather Beviss stole the show for Pixies whilst Courtney Wilber put in another fine performance for Mamas.

Results: Otter Valley 27 Tip Top Trees 39, Pixies 25 Swaggers 14.

ilminster angling
Victory for Harry on home waters

WITH no river match scheduled this week, 11 Ilminster AA members headed to Hebditch's Pond for a charity match.

Harry Hebditch had the top weight on the day with 61lb 10oz of carp on the pole and corn from peg 1 to win his first match with the club.

Jake Woodard was second with 53lb 4oz of carp from peg 3 and Adie Bishop completed the frame with 43lb 12oz of carp on maggots and pinkies from peg 10.

The anglers raised £55 with the proceeds going to the fund to help rebuild Dowlish Wake pavilion.

The club would like to thank Harry and his family for the use of the pond.

Sections; A – Jamie Rich (Against Men and Fish) – 34lb 10oz, B – Graham Field (Taunton) – 42lb 10z.

The next round of the V.E.S. Precision league is on Sunday and the draw is at the Royal Oak between 8.30 and 9am.

Sexton takes star billing in medal

HONITON with John Pawley

SHROUDED in fog all morning, the course opened just in time to play the Tuesday Mixed Greensomes.

The 24 players took part in this monthly drawn event competing for the Chivers Centenary Goblets.

The winners were Sue Ritchie & Stan Squire with 35pts. Second, but on count-back were Cherry Liell & John Northover, with Hilda Hoepelman &

◆ MIXED WINNERS:

Cyril Dann third with 34 points – again on count-back.

Autumnal weather brought a more relaxed air to the Ladies Wednesday meet when a bucket collection was organised for Children in Need.

A Stableford competition was organised to precede this – the shotgun start ensuring that all would finish together.

Teams of four played just 14 holes – with two scores to count. Winners were Jenny Raison, Julie Eyles, Sheila Palmer & Chris Pearce with 65pts followed by Janet Hughes, Carole Booth, Penny Blackburn & Pam Knibb. Catherine Hunt, Brenda Hyde, Sarah Dawe & Sue Kelson were third.

Fifty six seniors took the opportunity to improve their handicap in this the last Medal of the year on Friday. Stan Squire celebrated his birthday with a score of 70 – but was beaten to first place in Division One by Jim Wallis with his 67. Third was Pete Morgan with 72, followed by Paul Ritchie and Pat Purtell, both on 73.

Star of the day was Rob Sexton who romped home as clear winner of Division Two, and the monthly medal tankard, and earned himself a handicap of 20 for next time. He was followed by Bill Phillips with 71 ahead of Howard Pritchard on count-back. George Smith was next from Bob Cleal, again separated by count-back, with their 72s.

Three 2s were achieved; by Tom Stanton on the second, with Mike Ward and Pete Morgan both getting theirs on the 12th.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE Mens section played a Texas Scramble on October 23RD with 1st place being taken by Richard Gibbons, Steve Anning & Simon Sweetland with a net 59.6. Close behind in 2nd place were Nigel Pritchard, Stuart Mackie & Alan Morgan with a net 60.

The Ladies played a Halloween Fun competition which was played in pairs, with scores to count on odds and one score to count on evens.

Each pair had a short piece of pink ribbon to use on greens once on odds and once on evens, a longer piece of pink to use on fairway and longer again a piece of orange ribbon to be used anywhere, again once on odds and once on evens.

1st place was taken by Stella Thompson & Di Rogers with 61pts. In 2nd place were Helen Kenworthy & Pauline Willis with 53 and in 3rd were Jill Wellington & Danusia White with 52.

The Seniors' section played their Medal competition in perfect weather conditions which was reflected in the close scoring.

The winner, on countback, with a net 70 was Gilbert Cox who will now enjoy his handicap being reduced from 21 to 20. In 2nd was Tony Strong (h/c 6) and in 3rd was Alan Morgan with a net 71. Dave Weston and Peter Hornsby both carded 2s.

CRICKET ST THOMAS with Bert Robinson

AFTER the Monday washout 48 Seniors entered the final qualifying medal competition on Wednesday.

The golfers found conditions difficult, and only one player returned a sub par round. In Division One Trevor Dobson and Maurice Arnold were neck and neck throughout the competition and could not be separated.

at the finish, both returning 2 over par rounds of 72. Out in front however was new member Nick Gabb who posted a score of 2 under par.

In Division Two Ian Fielder led from the start and posted 3 over par 73 which was enough to secure first place with Quinney Lawrence two shots behind.

Result: Division One: 1st Nick Gabb (68), 2nd Maurice Arnold (72), 3rd Trevor Dobson (72).

Division Two: 1st Ian Fielder (73), 2nd Quinney Lawrence (75), 3rd Clive Fisk (76).

The Seniors' match team travelled to ENMORE on Friday to play their final match of the season.

Although the match was lost, the Saints team put up a valiant fight against the Stags, and were unlucky in two of the games which could have gone either way.

Although there was a recovery in the middle, the Saints went down 21/2 – 51/2.

Results: Nick Hill & Keith Potter lost 3&2. Roger Stone & Bob Hollingsworth lost by 2 holes, Chris Ginnell & Stuart Pope lost 4&3, Alan Chance & Robin Flower won 4&3, Ian Griffiths & Bill Hilson lost 4&3, Frank Martin & Barry Singleton halved, George Wallace & James Dick won 4&3, Norman Markby & John McOmish lost 2&1

Consequently, the match team finished the season having won 13 games with 13 losses and two halves.

Meanwhile, 48 Seniors played a three man Bowmaker competition on Friday.

In benign conditions, the players enjoyed the extra run of the ball with half the teams scoring sub par rounds.

Result: 1st Geoff Dean; Bob Rees & Mike Hone 81 points, 2nd Andy Beale; Jerry Stevens & Hughes 79, 3rd John Livens; Kalan Keenan & Roger Withers 76.

Virus outbreak leads to Chard fixtures wipeout

ALL Chard RFC matches were postponed last weekend as a purely precautionary measure following an outbreak of the hand foot and mouth virus amongst a small number of players.

There is no real indication of how why and where this started but, after contacting the RFU rugby development officer for South Somerset, and taking on board the advice given, Chard had no option but to postpone all the three senior games and the colts fixture that were due to have taken place on Saturday.

In addition, the club also decided to steam clean all the dressing rooms as well as deep cleaning the clubhouse. This again was just precautionary.

The virus does not normally require any medication as the disease gets better in a week. Hand foot and mouth is not the same condition that affects livestock.

There have been no more cases reported.

No indication yet of when the colts game will be re-arranged but the 1st xv game against Midsomer Norton, the 2nd xv game at home to Wiveliscombe 2nd xv and the 3rd xv match away against Frome 3rds have all been re-scheduled by the RFU and must be played on Saturday, November 12th.

This Saturday's fixtures;

1st xv home to Matson in South West One at 2pm
2nd xv away at Yeovil 2nds
3rds entertain Wivelis-combe at Crewkerne Road 2pm.

The Colts are supposed to be away at Wiveliscombe but this still has to be confirmed.

The rugby Club will again be organising the big FIREWORKS PARTY for the town and a spectacular show will be held at the main Ground on Friday with the gates open from 6.30pm

As well as the Fireworks there will be music, refreshment outlets and the bar will be open.

Entrance costs £5 but is free for under 10s.

A reminder to all car park permit holders that the club car park will not be available to anyone on Friday because of the preparations required.
